VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY:

WONDERS OF THE
Galápagos Islands

Dear Alumni & Friends:

“The natural history of this archipelago is very remarkable ... the greater number of its inhabitants, both vegetable and animal, being found nowhere else.”

Charles Darwin’s keen yet simple observation of the Galápagos Islands made famous this “living laboratory of evolution.” Today, 95 percent of its natural biodiversity, first seen when a Spanish ship drifted off course in 1535, is still intact—this UNESCO World Heritage site is home to the amazing exotic birds, animals and plants that inspired Darwin—and continues to offer the excitement of original discovery to every visitor.

Join us for an incredible, once-in-a-lifetime journey aboard the first-class exploration vessel M.V. SANTA CRUZ. Designed specifically to navigate the Galápagos Islands, it is fully equipped with everything necessary to make your Galápagos experience complete, from complimentary snorkeling gear to a fleet of Zodiacs and a glass-bottom Boston Whaler. Certified onboard naturalists lead excursions and share their knowledge to enhance your understanding and enjoyment of this fascinating and mysterious natural realm.

These 19 islands, each with its own ecosystem, are teeming with flora and fauna and species unknown elsewhere in the world, like the flightless cormorant and the marine iguana. With few natural predators on the islands, the abundant wildlife is nearly fearless and innocently receptive to human company up close, unlike any other place on our planet! Here, you can almost touch spiny-backed iguanas and snorkel alongside playful seals and tropical penguins.

On mainland Ecuador, explore the magnificent colonial churches of Quito, with their opulent gold interiors, and its historic Old Town, and you will have an opportunity to stand on the Equator.

To complement your Galápagos Islands cruise, we are pleased to offer an exclusive Post-Tour Option to experience the marvels of the legendary “lost city” of Machu Picchu and the breathtaking Sacred Valley.

This exceptional travel value features all accommodations and an optimal cruising itinerary through the “Islands of Tortoises” and has been a fast sellout every year. We encourage you to reserve now as space is limited and Early Booking Savings are only available through July 21, 2014.

Hollis Robbins, A&S '83, is Chair of the Humanities Department at the Peabody Institute and incoming Director of the Center for Africana Studies at Johns Hopkins University. Her work focuses on 19th-century English and American literature and classification culture. The winner of the 2014 Excellence in Teaching Award at Peabody, Robbins teaches Charles Darwin’s The Voyage of the Beagle and On the Origin of Species in courses on Victorian literature. Her recent articles include “William Wordsworth’s ‘We Are Seven’ and the First British Census” and “Killing Time: Dracula and Social Discoordination.” She is co-editor of The Annotated Uncle Tom’s Cabin with Henry Louis Gates, Jr.

The enigma of the Galápagos Islands

“The Archipelago is a little world within itself...”
— Charles Darwin, The Voyage of the Beagle

Amazingly, this remote volcanic archipelago, consisting of 19 islands and 42 islets located 600 miles off the coast of Ecuador, inspired one of the most revolutionary theories in the history of science. Formed millions of years ago by volcanic eruptions, these islands’ dramatic landscapes now make a safe home for the quirky finches and primeval iguanas that inspired Charles Darwin’s theory of natural selection and evolution, which he presented in On The Origin of Species in 1859.

Scientists theorize that most Galápagos species originally floated to the islands from the mainland or were transported by birds or deposited by whalers and buccaneers. Others, like penguins and sea lions, probably arrived by way of the Humboldt Current, a cold stream of ocean water flowing from the southern coast of Chile. This current makes the Galápagos the world’s only tropical region to support such species.

Darwin noted that life in the Galápagos Islands comprises mostly “aboriginal creations, found nowhere else,” which led him to hypothesize that the islands’ species survived by evolving over time independently from their continental cousins. Because natural predators failed to survive—possibly due to the lack of fresh water, which deterred even permanent human settlement until the 20th century—its bevy of birds and animals was able to thrive and adapt in a manner not possible in other habitats.

This also explains why Galápagos species never developed a fear of humans and allow the near contact that makes your experience on the islands so thrilling and unique.

U.S./Quito, Ecuador

Friday, Day 1

Fly to Quito, the highest capital city in the world at 9350 feet, and transfer to your deluxe hotel. Surrounded by snow-capped peaks, yet only miles from the Equator, Quito is known for its magnificent Spanish colonial architecture and lively street life.

Quito

Saturday, Day 2

Quito is a city of startling contrasts, where thousands of years of native South American tradition are interwoven with imported Catholicism, the Spanish language and European culture. Quaint family-owned shops and open-air markets are steps away from gleaming skyscrapers and ornate Spanish Baroque-style cathedrals favored by the Conquistadors. On the city tour, visit the Museo Nacional del Banco Central's Archaeological Gallery and Golden Court and the noble, 16th-century Iglesia (Church) de San Francisco. Continue to the heart of Quito, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and see the Moorish-influenced Cathedral Metropolitana and Iglesia de La Compañía de Jesus, renowned for its lavish interiors decorated with an estimated seven tons of gold leaf.

This evening, attend a private Welcome Reception in the hotel.

Quito Sunday, Day 3

Spend the day at leisure in Quito or join an optional excursion to the Equator at zero degrees latitude. Stand with one foot in each hemisphere in the "middle of the world," where an 18th-century multinational expedition located the Equator and established for the first time an accurate measurement of the earth's size. Step inside the hundred-foot-tall monument to this endeavor and tour the Ethnographic Museum, illustrating the diversity of Ecuador's indigenous peoples. Afterward, enjoy lunch in a restaurant with a view of the vast Pululahua volcanic crater.

Quito/Baltra, Galápagos Islands/Santa Cruz Monday, Day 4

Fly to the small Galápagos island of Baltra. Embark the M.V. SANTA CRUZ in time for lunch and attend your first briefing by the English-speaking Ecuadorian naturalists.

Santa Cruz Island's pristine white beaches, giant prickly pear cactus forests, vibrantly colored flamingos and prehistoric-looking iguanas make it an ideal introduction to the archipelago. Cruise aboard Zodiacs along beautiful mangrove-lined islets and seek out blue- and red-footed boobies, great frigate birds and brown pelicans. Make a landing in the surf at Las Bachas Beach, and explore a small lagoon favored by elegant wading birds, including black-necked stilts and golden eagles. Attend the Captain's Welcome Reception this evening.

Please note that the M.V. SANTA CRUZ's specific itinerary and cruise pattern is dependent on weather, sea conditions and Galápagos National Park Service regulations.

Take photographs of a lifetime during up-close Galápagos wildlife encounters.

On Bartolomé Island, see the famous Pinnacle Rock and watch for reef sharks and ray-like skates swimming in the crystal-clear water.

Look for the unique mating “dance” of the magnificent frigate birds, one of the Galápagos Islands’ hallmark species.

Santiago Tuesday, Day 5

Experience the scenic beauty of Santiago Island’s Buccaneer Cove surrounded by dramatic volcanic cliffs where hundreds of sea birds perch. Go ashore for a closer look at wildlife, much like the British pirates, sailors and whalers did in the 18th and 19th centuries while using this protected harbor as a safe haven, making repairs and gathering salt, fresh water and firewood.

Later, in Puerto Egas at low tide, walk beside the best tide pools in the Galápagos. Look for land iguanas and marine iguanas—the world’s only seagoing iguanas—grazing on algae beds along the rocky shore. Nearby, observe fur seals and sea lions swimming in the grotto’s turquoise pools.

Rábida/Bartolomé Wednesday, Day 6

Make a wet landing on the otherworldly red sands of Rábida Island. Walk among sea lions and marine iguanas and see a variety of birds, including mockingbirds, yellow warblers and nine species of Darwin’s legendary finches. Continue inland to the island’s unique saltwater pond to search for its famous bright pink flamingos.

This afternoon, make a dry landing on the tiny isle of Bartolomé. From the top of Cerro Bartolomé, enjoy unsurpassed views of lunar-like craters, mangroves and lava formations. Particularly impressive is Pinnacle Rock, a jagged 225-foot tower of honeycombed stone. Below, the island’s pristine beaches and sparking clear water are ideal for swimming and watching the antics of tropical penguins. Then, look for dolphins, manta rays and an abundance of colorful sea creatures from the comfort of a glass-bottom boat.

Genovesa Thursday, Day 7

The remote northern island of Genovesa offers unforgettable bird-watching in the archipelago and is home to the world’s largest colony of red-footed boobies. Following a dry landing at Prince Philip’s Steps, walk up to a broad lava flow overlooking the sea, one of the best places to see the masked faces of Nazca boobies and flurries of tiny storm petrels swirling above.

Later, cruise into Darwin Bay, inhabited by fur seals, hammerhead sharks and swallow-tailed gulls, and make a wet landing for a more leisurely stroll on a coral beach. Among the prickly pear cacti, saltbush and red mangroves, look for magnificent frigate birds, yellow-crowned night herons and four types of Darwin’s finches. Attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception this evening.

San Cristóbal/ Guayaquil, Ecuador Friday, Day 8

Arrive this morning at San Cristóbal, where Darwin first landed in 1835, and observe the giant tortoises—the largest in the world—at the Cerro Colorado breeding station. These remarkable creatures, while reaching weights of up to 900 pounds, are born with soft shells vulnerable to invasive nonnative species. The breeding station protects the young tortoises until they are able to survive in their natural habitat.

In 1570, the islands were named “galápagos,” meaning tortoise, based on sailors’ descriptions of their inhabitants.

Then fly to Guayaquil and enjoy dinner in the deluxe HILTON COLÓN HOTEL, with late-evening departure to the U.S., or continue on to the Machu Picchu and the Sacred Valley Post-Tour Option with an overnight in Guayaquil.

Guayaquil/U.S. Saturday, Day 9

Arrive in the U.S.

The Post-Tour Option and Optional Excursion are at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

M.V. SANTA CRUZ

The intimacy and personal service of a small cruise ship experience are the hallmarks of travel aboard the first-class expedition vessel M.V. SANTA CRUZ. It is designed specifically to navigate the Galápagos archipelago's narrow channels, shallow bays and environmentally sensitive waters and provides the most comprehensive access possible to the region's marine and wildlife treasures. Refurbished in late 2011, the air-conditioned M.V. SANTA CRUZ features only 43 cabins and offers modern amenities and facilities.

A team of multilingual onboard Ecuadorian expert naturalists will share their in-depth insight and knowledge about the Galápagos' distinctive ecosystem during daily excursions and natural history lectures. The ship provides a Boston Whaler glass-bottom boat to observe marine life, Zodiacs for island landings and excursions, complimentary snorkeling equipment and a nighttime stargazing program.

Each outside, air-conditioned cabin is tastefully appointed with a window or porthole, private bathroom, safe and hair dryer.

All meals, featuring international and Ecuadorian specialties, are served in single seatings in the ship's inviting dining room.

The ship's public facilities include a lounge, natural history library and reading room with Internet access, bar, boutique, observation platform for dolphin watching, jacuzzi and medical clinic with a full-time physician.

The M.V. SANTA CRUZ's staff provides professional, attentive service. The ship maintains the highest international safety and environmental standards.

Machu Picchu and the Sacred Valley Post-Tour Option

Enjoy this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to experience Machu Picchu, the “Lost City of the Incas;” the lush Sacred Valley; and the colonial and Incan traditions of Cuzco.

Located high in the Peruvian Andes, Machu Picchu was obscured from humankind for 400 years until Yale Professor Hiram Bingham literally stumbled upon it in 1911. A century of extensive research and study still has not revealed the secrets of its purpose, its residents or its abandonment; nevertheless, this UNESCO World Heritage site has been carefully excavated and preserved.

The rushing Urubamba River flows through the beautiful Sacred Valley, where ancient engineering marvels, such as the fortress of Ollantaytambo, stand as lasting testimony to the powerful and far-reaching Inca empire. Here, village craftsmen employ age-old techniques to weave intricate tapestries and sculpt colorful pottery.

In the historic Incan capital of Cuzco, a UNESCO World Heritage site, the Incan stone fortress of Sacsayhuamán and grand Baroque- and Renaissance-style churches provide a fascinating mix of pre-Columbian and colonial influences.

Day 1 Guayaquil/Fly to Lima, Peru

Day 2 Lima/Cuzco/Sacred Valley

Day 3 Sacred Valley/Scenic train ride to Machu Picchu

Day 4 Machu Picchu/Transfer to Cuzco

Day 5 Cuzco

Day 6 Cuzco/Lima

Day 7 Lima/Return to the U.S.

Plaza de Armas is the magnificent center of historic Cuzco, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: Thomas P. Gohagan & Company, the sponsoring associations/organizations, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively "Gohagan"), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity or of any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, bites from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a trip participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person Gohagan judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Ship schedules, port calls, hours of arrival and departure, sightseeing events, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change or cancellation without prior notice. Gohagan is not responsible therefor and is not required to compensate passengers under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel a trip (or an option) for any reason whatsoever; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to it. Gohagan is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Gohagan is not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Gohagan makes the flight arrangements or cancels the trip. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure.

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport, visas and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and Internet access; accident/sickness, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; gratuities to ship personnel, naturalists and hotel personnel; optional sightseeing excursions; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport tax(es); airfare and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed in the "Included Features" section of the brochure; transfers and baggage handling to/from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s); meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned in the "Included Features" section.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the fare basis, likely is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Gohagan.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. Please contact your airline(s) for the most current luggage allowance policy.

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Travelers must be able to embark or disembark motorcoaches alone or with minimal assistance from your traveling companion and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Travelers requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for handling equipment.
