JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

Dear Alumni & Friends:

We extend a special invitation to you to join us for this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the historic D-Day landings during this Celtic Lands voyage. By exclusive arrangement, walk the hallowed beaches of Normandy, France, with Dwight David Eisenhower II, grandson of General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and meet Celia Sandys, granddaughter of Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill, both of whom will join us for a portion of the cruise to lecture and share their personal insights about two of the most influential figures of the 20th century and on the D-Day landings.

Our comprehensive Celtic Lands itinerary focuses on the Celtic people. Their immeasurable contributions to the culture of Europe's civilizations are surrounded in mystery, legend and folklore, and rooted in the wealth of art, science and mythology spanning from Ireland's Age of Heroes through King Arthur and his knights.

Experience the ancient legacy of the Celts and their enduring influence along with captivating historical legacies of more recent times. Cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star, small ship M.S. LE BORÉAL to explore cities, villages and islands that abound with living Celtic heritage, calling at ports accessible only to a small ship.

Admire the austere beauty of Scotland's Highlands and cruise among its misty, legend-haunted Inner Hebridean Islands. Call on Northern Ireland's seldom-visited port of Belfast, once home to the RMS TITANIC. Our voyage continues through the Irish Sea to follow in the footsteps of medieval and modern princes in North Wales; and later view the treasures of Celtic heritage in Dublin, Republic of Ireland. Then, cruise the Celtic Sea and the English Channel en route to France's Normandy beaches. After disembarking in the south of England, by special arrangement, visit historic Southwick House, Portsmouth. It was here, in General Eisenhower's headquarters, in 1944, that the top-secret Allied D-Day operations were planned and just getting underway at this very time of year.

This extraordinary 70th anniversary D-Day commemoration and exclusive travel offering is an excellent value and is not available to the general public. Capacity is limited, so we encourage you to reserve now while Early Booking Savings and space are available!

the LEGACY of the CELTS

The Celts, whose civilization spanned two thousand years, had no written history, no written language and no prevailing ethnic unity. They never built an empire nor founded a centralized state, yet at the height of their power, in the third century B.C., the Celts' domain extended from the Iberian Peninsula to the Black Sea and from the Mediterranean Sea to the North Sea. Today, the Celts are most associated with the heritage, cultural identity and national consciousness of Ireland, although their roots run deep in England, Wales, Scotland and Normandy, where Celtic dialects were the original languages.

U.S./Glasgow, Scotland

Wednesday and Thursday, May 28 and 29

Depart from the U.S. On arrival in Glasgow, embark the Five-Star M.S. LE BORÉAL.

Join your travel companions for dinner on board this evening.

Isle of Iona/ Tobermory, Isle of Mull

Friday, May 30

Go ashore at the Hebridean Isle of Iona, birthplace of Scottish Christianity. In 563 A.D., the Irish monk Columba founded a monastery here, where scribes would spend their entire lives painstakingly copying and illuminating religious tracts and transcribing ancient Celtic sagas into written form, preserving a record of oral bardic tradition. In later years, Iona became the burial place of Scotland's kings, including Duncan and Macbeth. At Iona Abbey, stroll through the serene, restored monastery and see the churchyard's intricate Celtic crosses.

After free time, ferry across the Sound of Iona to the neighboring port of Tobermory on the Isle of Mull, where vividly painted houses are nestled between the hills and the harbor. Visit the 13th-century Duart Castle, the ancestral home of the Clan Maclean, and have lunch in the castle's tea room.

This evening, attend the Captain's Welcome Reception and dinner.

Portree/Dunvegan, Isle of Skye

Saturday, May 31

Skye, dubbed "the Winged Island" after its birdlike shape, is the largest and one of the most scenic of the Inner Hebrides. Visit Dunvegan Castle, the seat of the powerful Clan MacLeod since 1270, built atop a rocky promontory overlooking the sea. Tour Dunvegan's richly appointed public rooms and view the Fairy Flag, a silken banner that legend claims had the power to save the clan from defeat on three occasions. View the castle's lush gardens, ablaze with azaleas and rhododendrons.

This afternoon, back on board, Celia Sandys will present a lecture about her legendary grandfather, Sir Winston Churchill.

Belfast, Northern Ireland

Sunday, June 1

Béal Feirsde ("the mouth of the crossing") was first noted in history as the site of a 666 A.D. battle between Ireland's ancient peoples. But it is the city's main shipbuilding company, Harland and Wolff, which built the well-known RMS TITANIC, that propelled Belfast onto the global stage in the early 20th century. Today, this capital city is the economic engine of Northern Ireland and a center for the arts, higher education and business.

The city tour of Belfast features Donegall Square, the central home of the Baroque Revival-style City Hall; the 19th-century

The traditional way of life in the Scottish Isles remains unchanged in Tobermory, where brightly painted houses line the fishing port of Tobermory, where brightly painted houses line the harbor.

Albert Memorial Clock in Queen's Square; the Scottish baronial Belfast Castle; and Stormont, the Edwardian Parliament Buildings that are home to the Northern Ireland Assembly.

This afternoon, visit the RMS TITANIC museum, located on the slipway where the ship was launched.

Holyhead, Wales/ Caernarfon Castle Monday, June 2

From Holyhead, travel across the Isle of Anglesey and over the Menai Strait to North Wales, one of the cradles of Celtic culture. Here, the people hold fast to the old ways and Welsh remains their mother tongue.

Visit beautiful Bodnant Garden, one of the finest examples of 19th-century Victorian landscape artistry. Enjoy lunch in a local restaurant and listen to a stirring private choir performance of Welsh hymns.

Skye's rolling moors have captivated generations of visitors to Scotland's Inner Hebrides.

Tour the imposing Caernarfon Castle, an impregnable 13th-century fortress built by Edward I of England as a defense against the marauding Welsh. Following tradition in place since 1301, Queen Elizabeth II invested the future heir to the British throne, Charles, as "Prince of Wales" at Caernarfon in 1969.

En route to the ship, view the beautiful, glacier-sculpted peaks and valleys of the Snowdonia Mountains in the distance.

Dublin, Ireland Tuesday, June 3

Built astride the River Liffey, Ireland's historic capital has retained its rich heritage of Georgian architecture while confidently playing a major role in the New Europe. Enjoy an overview tour of the city; stroll through the stately quadrangles of Trinity College and view the incandescent illuminations of the ninth-century Book of Kells; and visit the 13th-century St. Patrick's Cathedral of Ireland, where St. Patrick purportedly baptized converts to Christianity.

The afternoon is at leisure. Walk along colorful Grafton Street, savor a pint of Guinness in a typical neighborhood pub or visit the treasures of Celtic heritage in the National Museum of Ireland.

Enjoy traditional Irish music and dance aboard the ship this evening.

Cruising the Celtic Sea/ English Channel Wednesday, June 4

Enjoy educational lectures today, including Professor David Eisenhower's "Triumph and Tragedy," while cruising the Celtic Sea and English Channel.

Caen/Normandy Beaches Thursday, June 5

Travel through the scenic countryside to the historic Normandy beaches. In the company of David Eisenhower, walk where Allied forces landed on June 6, 1944, and visit the American Military Cemetery at St. Laurent, overlooking Omaha Beach. At Pointe du Hoc, envision the brave American rangers who scaled 200-foot heights to capture German gun emplacements.

See remnants of the floating artificial harbor code-named "Mulberry," constructed to support Allied landings at Gold Beach, followed by an opportunity to see either the D-Day Museum or the famous, 230-foot-long Bayeux Tapestry, a stunning visual chronicle of the Norman conquest of 1066.

This evening, Eisenhower shares captivating details about his grandfather,

Engaged in the colorful erlook the Sound of Mull.

Explore Edward I's impressive Caernarfon Castle, the mightiest link in his Iron Ring of 13th-century fortresses across North Wales.

whose leadership reshaped the world. He provides fascinating insight on the worldwide ramifications of Operation Overlord, the Allies' code name for the World War II military campaign that launched the D-Day airborne and amphibious invasion on Normandy. Tonight, cruise across the English Channel.

The Long Room of Trinity College's Old Library showcases 200,000 of the library's oldest books, with the Book of Kells on display in the adjacent Treasury.

Portsmouth, England/London Friday, June 6

Disembark in Portsmouth, the principal harbor of Britain's Royal Navy. Enjoy time at leisure in Portsmouth or a guided tour of the Portsmouth D-Day Museum, founded in 1984 on the 40th anniversary of the invasion. The museum's awe-inspiring centerpiece is the 272-foot-long Overlord Embroidery, which commemorates the Allied invasion of Normandy and is the largest artwork of its kind in the world.

Listen to an exclusive guest speaker during lunch in the neoclassical Portsmouth Guildhall. Tour Southwick House and its historic map room, the top-secret headquarters of the Allied Command's invasion strategists during World War II. Southwick House is where General Eisenhower met with his senior commanders on the morning of June 5, 1944, to set into motion more than three million soldiers, 7000 ships and 11,000 fighter planes for the surprise invasion of Normandy.

Enjoy a scenic transfer to HOTEL RUNNYMEDE outside London, England, and join your travel companions for dinner this evening.
