FLASHBACK TO 2010 WHERE IT ALL STARTED!

ORIENTATION – PLAY FAIR

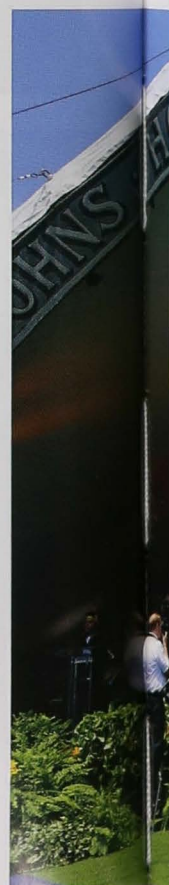

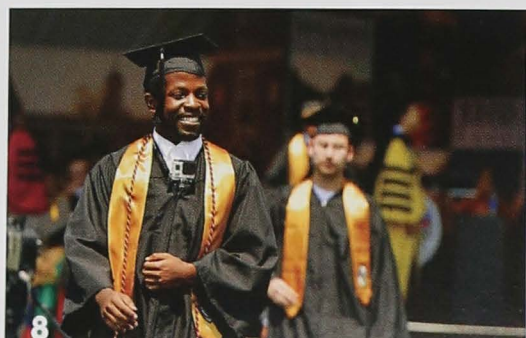

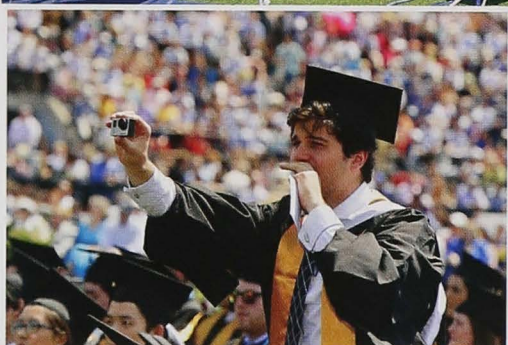

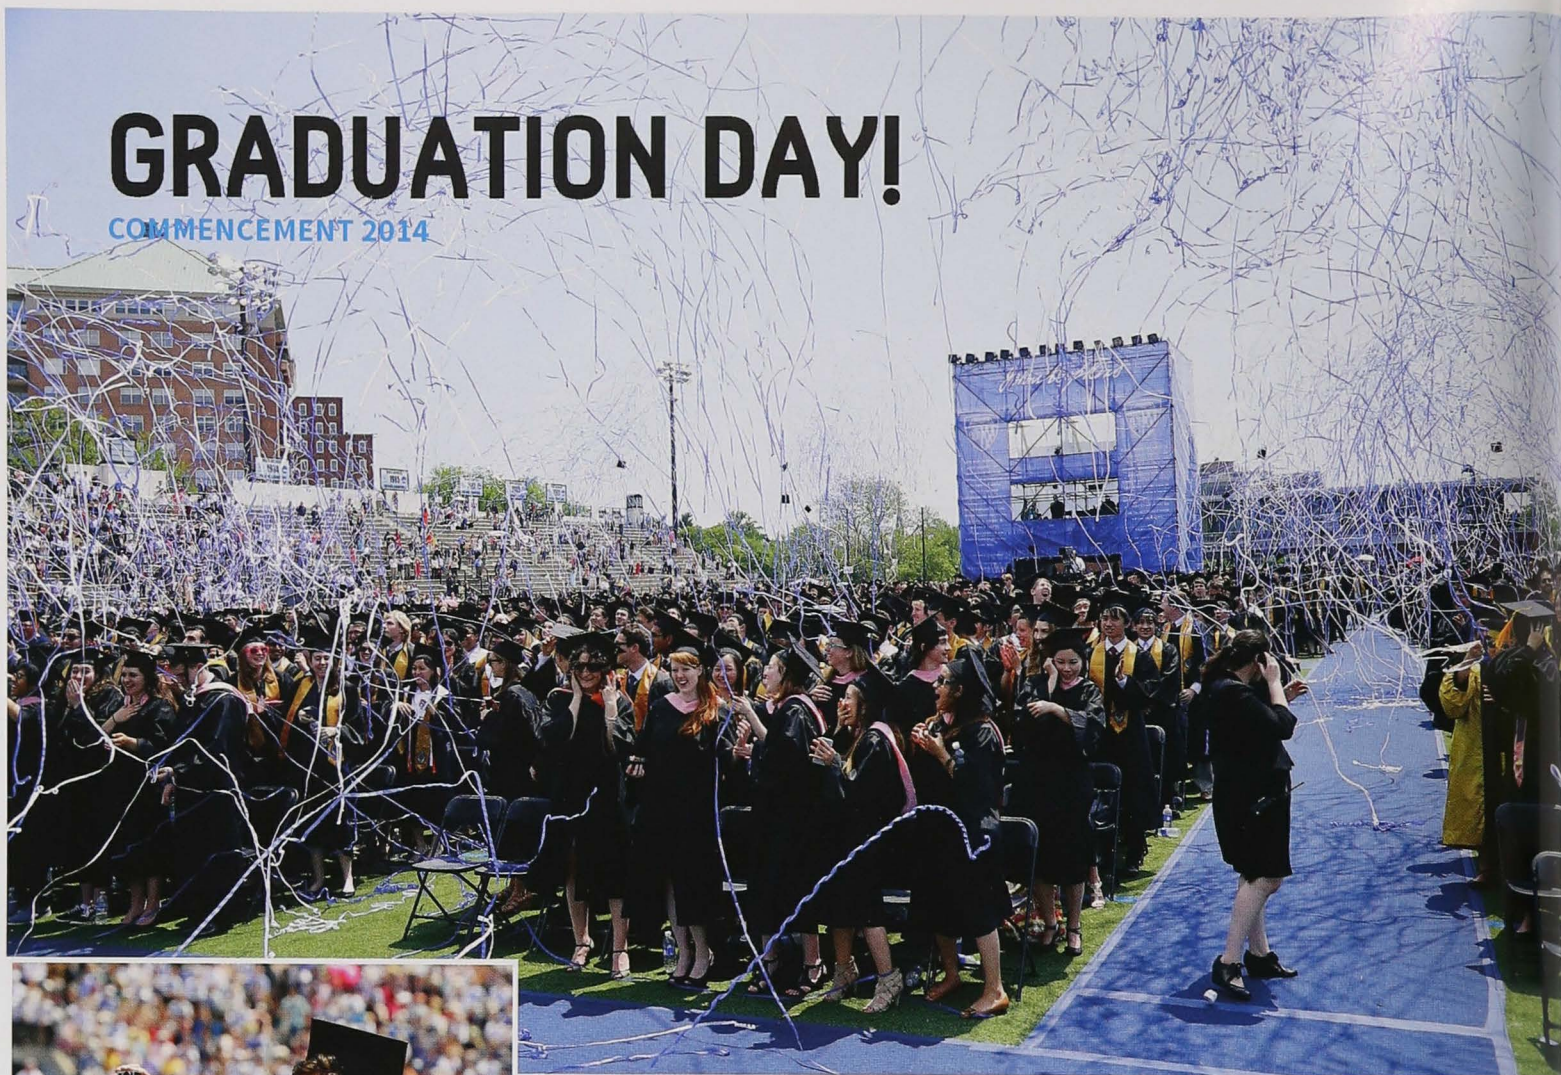

During Orientation Week of 2010, the entire freshman class filed shoeless into the O'Connor Recreation Center gymnasium to make a human tunnel of fun. With music pumping, RA's jumping and the Johns Hopkins Blue Jay dancing, the freshmen participated in a series of quick icebreakers and activities—including a massive game of rock, paper, scissors—that allowed the incoming class to get better acquainted and feel some school spirit.

CONGRATULATIONS

#ALUMNISTATUS

“SOME OF YOU MAY KNOW EXACTLY WHERE YOU WANT TO BE IN 25 YEARS, AND EXACTLY HOW TO GET THERE. BUT FOR THE REMAINING 99 PERCENT OF YOU, MY ADVICE IS SIMPLY ... FORGET THE MASTER PLAN.

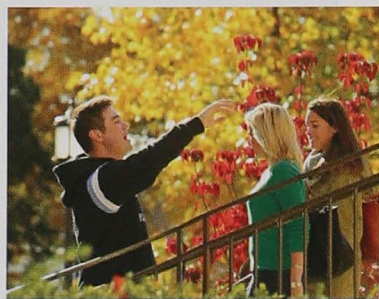

Instead, if you embrace the challenges at each step, taking risks propelled by your core passions and interests, the choices you face will not be either-or dilemmas. There will be time for medicine and music, for public and private, for Seattle and sub-Saharan Africa. By following meaningful opportunities, you will arrive inevitably—and perhaps improbably—at a perfect place, a place imbued with meaning, fulfillment, and impact. By worrying less about the final outcome, you may find that the grand destination, the tapestry of your life, will reveal itself with time... So, members of the Class of 2014, choose wisely. And if you don't, don't worry—you'll have the chance to choose and choose again.”

MENS BASKETBALL

2013 - 2014 SEASON
OVERALL 17-11, CONFERENCE 12-6

Hopkins' hoopers Jimmy Hammer and George Bugarinovic led the mens' team to a 17-11 season this year. Hammer and Bugarinovic, both juniors, were named to the Capital One Academic All-District and All-Centennial teams this year. Hammer is the first Blue Jay to earn First Team All-CC accolades since 2007.

WOMENS BASKETBALL

The Lady Blue Jays took flight straight to the top with an impressive 18-8 overall season. Senior Fatu Conteh finished her chart-topping collegiate career as the eighth all-time leader in steals and 12th all-time leader in points. Conteh is one of only five Hopkins players in program history to accumulate over 650 points, 350 rebounds, 150 steals and 150 assists! The Lady Blue Jays' point pounding 62-61 victory over F&M is surely one of the season's most memorable moments with sophomore Liz Tommasi posting a whopping 16 points in the second half to secure the win.

FOOTBALL

2013 - 2014 SEASON

OVERALL 10-1-0, CONFERENCE 9-0-0

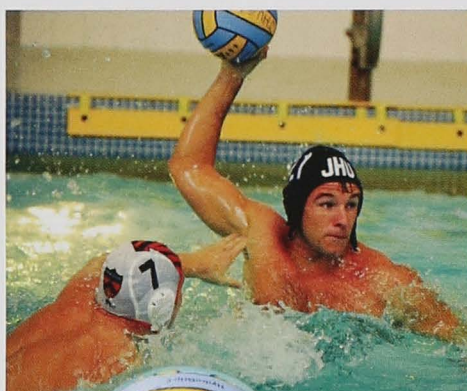

The mighty Blue Jays posted a 10-1 record, including a perfect 9-0 winning streak in the Centennial Conference. This marks Hopkins' third straight and fifth overall Centennial Conference titles, tying the record for most titles in league history! Under the guidance of head coach Jim Margraff, the Johns Hopkins football program reached its 500th victory over Franklin & Marshall on November 9. Senior LB Hani Annabi closed out his college career with many accolades in 2013, including his selection as a NFF Scholar-Athlete and the Capital One Academic All-American of the Year.

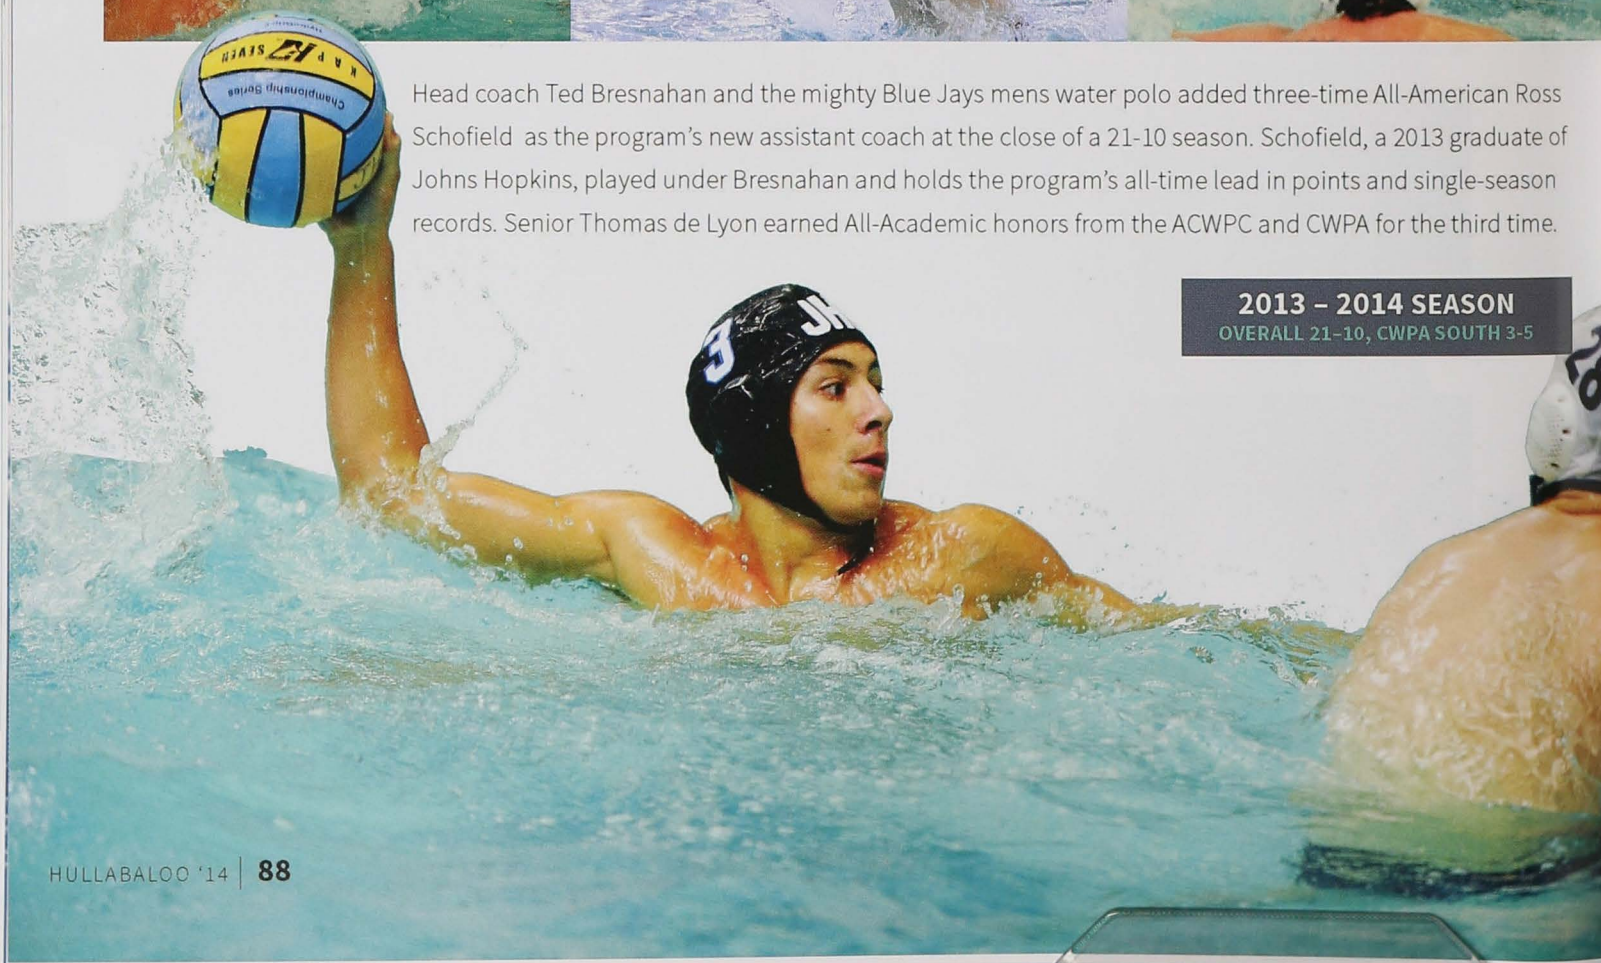

WATCH OUT! WE PLAY FOR REAL

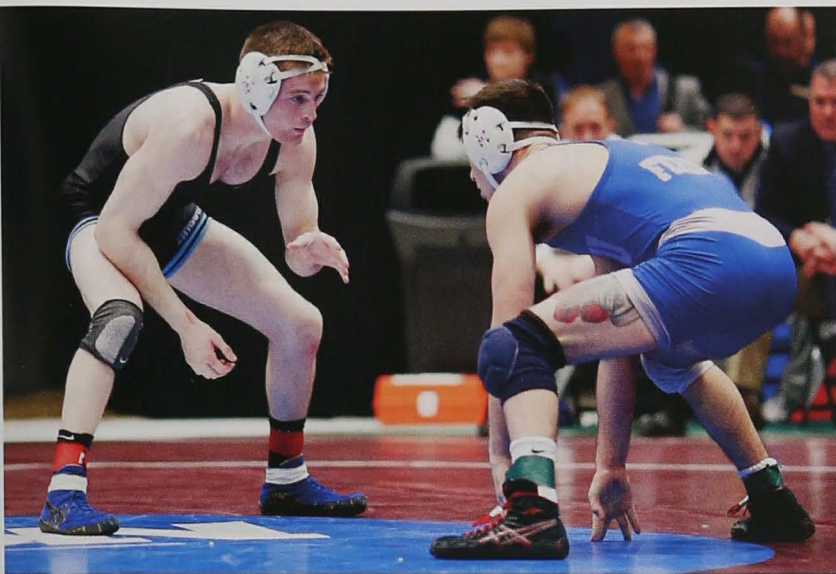

WATERPOLO

Head coach Ted Bresnahan and the mighty Blue Jays mens water polo added three-time All-American Ross Schofield as the program's new assistant coach at the close of a 21-10 season. Schofield, a 2013 graduate of Johns Hopkins, played under Bresnahan and holds the program's all-time lead in points and single-season records. Senior Thomas de Lyon earned All-Academic honors from the ACWPC and CWPA for the third time.

This season was the men's tennis team's second NCAA Quarterfinals appearance. The team finished the season ranked seventh in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) National Poll. It marks the third straight season that the Blue Jays have been ranked in the top 10 of the final ITA poll. Hopkins also ranked second in the Atlantic South.

RUNNING IS WHAT WE DO

WOMENS TRACK & FIELD

The Johns Hopkins women's track & field team finished tied for 23rd in the nation with 10 team points at the NCAA Outdoor Championships behind the All-American performances from senior Maggie Shelton and sophomore Megan McDonald. This was the team's fifth straight outdoor conference title. The finish capped off an outstanding season for the program, which qualified the most athletes ever (10) for an NCAA Championship event. The team produced 11 first team All-Centennial athletes and 20 total selections.

TRACK & FIELD MONSTERS!

MENS TRACK & FIELD

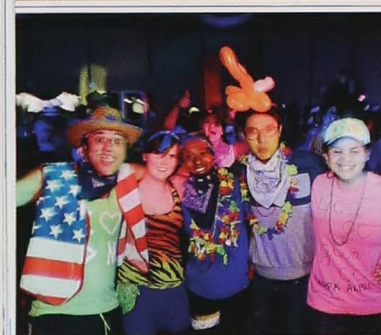

This season the Johns Hopkins men's track & field team made history, winning the program's first-ever Centennial Conference outdoor title with 209.50 points. The title culminates arguably the greatest year in the history of Johns Hopkins track & field, as both the men and women's programs swept all six conference titles (cross country, indoor track & outdoor track).

Debra Schwitzer

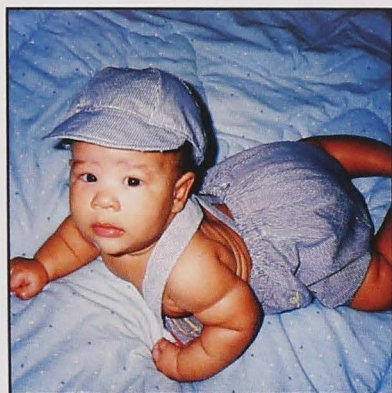

We are so proud of all that you've accomplished at Johns Hopkins where you were able to cultivate your unique talents. You worked hard and accepted the ups and down of college life. Yet, you always did things with grace and alacrity. Your sunny disposition makes people smile and is addictive. Your teachers and friends love you, as we do. At Johns Hopkins, you let your passion guide you knowing no boundaries and driving you to assume multiple roles, whether it was President of Phi Mu, President Chabad and student relations, teachers assistant, and volunteer to teach children at the local elementary public school dance. You love challenges and always forge your own path. You lead by example your loving spirit is inspirational. Keep growing, Keep dancing and most of all Keep Smiling. We know you will always make us proud. May God continue to shine His light upon you always and keep you healthy and happy.

With all our love,
Mom, Dad, Jason, Erica and Jonathan

Anthony Lee Summers

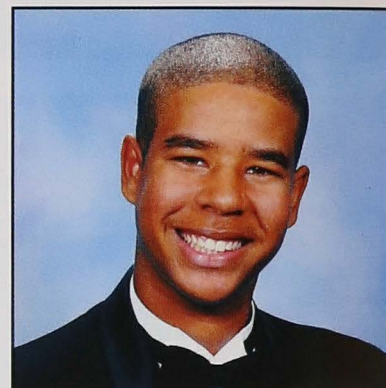

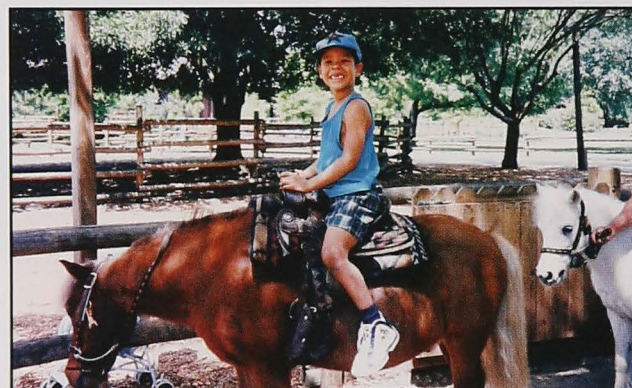

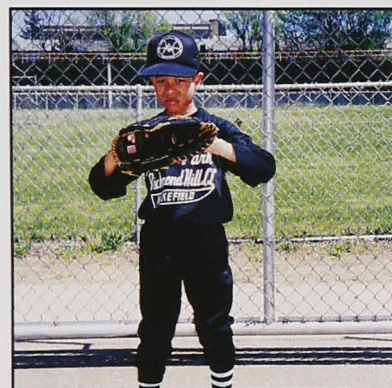

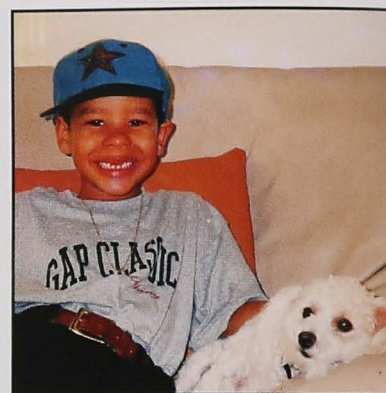

Dear Tony,

You are a Blessing and a great source of joy and pride! You have grown into a fine young man, full of spirit, intelligence, humor, sensitivity, and determination. John F. Di Capua, Jr.

Dear John,

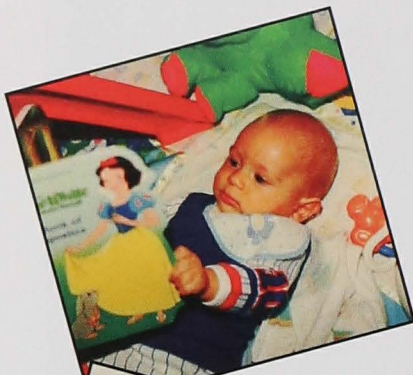

On your graduation from Johns Hopkins University, the joy your family feels at this moment is simply overwhelming.

For you have grown intellectually but have remained true to your ideals and values. Your warm smile, wonderful sense of humor, and steadfast integrity make us all so proud.

Our message to you today is simple. Don't ever change. Stay true to who you are and what you believe in. Remember your roots. Keep your identity. Believe in yourself. Do good in the world. With happiness and love in our hearts, we wish you Congratulations.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Julia, Christopher & Jennifer
