Adventures are wrapped in luxury in Botswana, where you wing your way from camp to camp on small planes. No lines, no check-in, just the cheerful hello of the pilot as he tosses your duffle in the back of your “taxi in the sky.” Visit the Kalahari Desert and the otherworldly Makgadikgadi Salt Pans, where a glowing, white expanse of natural salt deposits create glittering mirages that seem to reach out into the horizon endlessly. Then, take in the spectacular view over the Okavango; a wetland wilderness of looping channels, islands forested with palms, and wide grassy floodplains.
Get set for your adventure as you board your overnight flight to Johannesburg, where you will be met and escorted to your hotel. Welcome to Jo’burg, as the locals say, where the vitality of South Africa’s largest city is reflected in the dazzling facades of abstract modernist skyscrapers and the mercurial flow of its financial center. Gold was discovered in the adjacent Witwatersrand area in 1886, its nickname, “the Rand” later became the name of South Africa's official currency.
