DISCOVERY

City of Sails. Discover Auckland's top sites and scenic views from the Harbour Bridge. Visit Viaduct Harbour, the vibrant waterfront area; bustling Queen Street; and the city's expansive park, Auckland Domain. At the Auckland Museum, delight in a traditional Maori haka war dance. Enjoy lunch in charming Parnell Village, Auckland's oldest suburb.

Dunedin's Old Town. Take a morning walking tour through the Octagon, the city's eight-sided plaza. See the influence of early Scottish settlers in the fine Edwardian and Victorian buildings, including the Dunedin Railway station, First Church and St. Paul's Cathedral.

Select from two other Dunedin excursions:

Dunedin: Taieri Gorge Railway.

Admire the wild, beautiful and remote countryside on a scenic train ride.

Dunedin: Otago Peninsula's Wildlife.

Be captivated by the antics of penguins, sea lions, fur seals and marine birds.

Doubtful Sound Tour. From Te Anau, travel to lovely Lake Manapouri for a cruise, then marvel at Fiordland's lush rainforest en route to Doubtful Sound, the park's deepest fiord. Sail through this pristine, serene fiord on a three-hour guided catamaran cruise. Visit a key sustainable energy source, the Manapouri Underground Power Station.

Safari of the Scenes. On a guided drive, explore the spectacular locations around Queenstown that became Middle-earth in the "Lord of the Rings" movies. Follow a historic goldmining road and try panning for gold. Gaze at stunning vistas over Wakatipu Basin.

Franz Josef Glacier. En route to the area, see splendid Lakes Dunstan, Hawea and Wanaka, as well as Thunder Creek Falls. Get a close-up view of one of the world's fastest moving glaciers on a thrilling walk through the glacier valley.

Tranz-Alpine Train Ride. Take this celebrated, picturesque train journey, from Greymouth to Christchurch, up through dense alpine forests and across the snowcapped Southern Alps. Glide next to the ice-fed Waimakariri River and cross golden farm fields on the plains.

ENRICHMENT

Legend of Tamaki Makaurau. Hear the Maori legend of Auckland's origins, as well as other folklore of the region.

Dunedin. Delve into the rich past of this prominent city in the lower South Island, home to the country's first newspaper, university and medical school.

The Fiordland. Learn more about this "must-see" National Park, featuring lake, mountain, rain forest and fiord habitats.
