Canadian Maritimes

Nova Scotia, New Brunswick & Prince Edward Island

A grand journey through historic fishing communities, UNESCO World Heritage Sites, and idyllic landscapes of three of Canada's most picturesque provinces.

JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join us on this enriching adventure to uncover Canada's provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island. With its splendid natural beauty, strong maritime traditions, and welcoming locals, this region has much to offer.

First explore beautiful Halifax—Nova Scotia's friendly capital—during a panoramic city tour, including visits to the Citadel National Historic Site and Fairview Cemetery—the final resting place for 150 victims of the RMS Titanic.

During a tour of the south shore, admire the stunning landscape of Lunenburg—a charming fishing village and one of only two towns in North America designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Continue to Peggy's Cove to see its famous lighthouse.

En route to Digby, stop at the national historic site of Grand-Pré, which commemorates the area as the center of Acadian settlement from 1682 to 1755.

Experience Tea with Eleanor on Campobello Island and learn how President and Mrs. Roosevelt impacted this quaint area. Then spend time at the Bay of Fundy and learn of its impressive tide differential and geological treasures like fossils and minerals.

Space is limited. With significant savings of more than $800 per couple, we anticipate this tour will fill quickly, so be certain to reserve your spot today and share this brochure with family and friends who may be interested in traveling with you.

Please reserve online at jhu.orbridge.com, by phone at (866) 639-0079 or by returning the enclosed reservation form.

Sincerely,
