Recent graduates of the Johns Hopkins University Class of 2009 have time to reflect on the last four years they have spent here and the futures they have ahead of them.

Hopkins students, staff, family members and friends gather together on a warm May day to celebrate the achievements of the graduating class of 2009.

All of the students are thrilled to finally be walking in their commencement ceremony and receiving their diplomas they have worked hard over the past four years to earn.

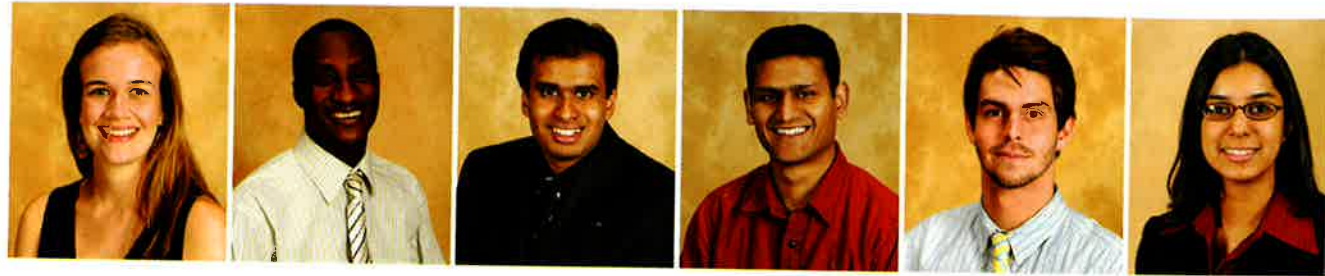

Commencement 2009

Commencement '09

Students celebrate the culmination of four years of late night paper writing, group studying, having dinner with good friends and attending classes with their commencement ceremony.

CONGRATULATIONS

Dance Groups

Breaking it down...

Dancing hard and putting on a spectacular show!

Check out those awesome moves and incredible flexibility! The dancers are working hard and having fun.

Dancers at Hopkins know how to balance school with the fun of dancing. You can definitely see all their hard work paying off through their stellar performances.

More Dance Groups

Hopkins dancers performing bharatanatyam, a form of classical Indian dance with great poise and grace.

Getting their breakdance on...

Hopkins students are showing off their breakdancing moves to their peers.
Check out those gravity-defying feats!

Dance

Modern Dance Company

The Modern Dance Company has been at Hopkins since 1981. Modern dance seeks to express feelings through their dramatic movements. The dancers are undergraduate students, graduate students, and some faculty/staff members. In addition to working hard for performances, members teach classes open to Hopkins students. These are some talented, dedicated, hard-working dancers!

These dancers exhibit incredible grace and passion while performing.

Acapella Groups

Keeping the beat and singing in sync!

These acapella singers are truly talented individuals, really keeping their audience entertained.

THEATER

The costume designers have done an incredible job creating such believable outfits for the productions.

There is no shortage of talent in the Theatre department. Hopkins students are quite impressive on the stage!

Staying in character is not always easy, but these Hopkins students sure make it seem effortless.

These actors and actresses are not only talented at acting but also at singing, what a feat!

Foreign Affairs Symposium

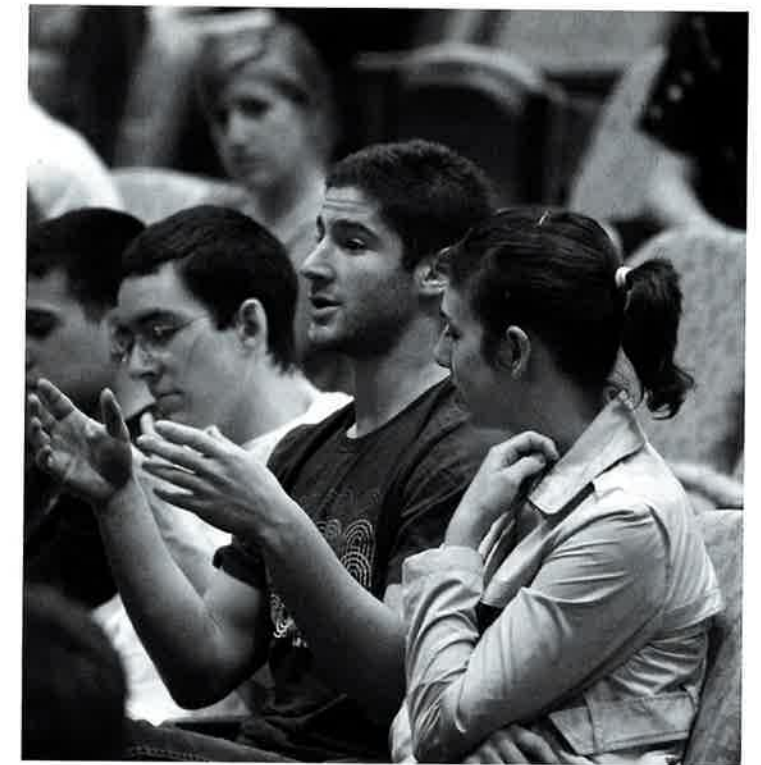

The Foreign Affairs Symposium is a student run group founded in 1998 when Woodrow Wilson International Studies and the International Studies Forum Symposia were merged.

The Foreign Affairs Symposium provides the ideal forum for internationally-renowned speakers to share their ideas and for Hopkins students to learn and also be heard.

The Symposium aims to educate the Hopkins community on international issues of social, political, and economic importance.

Cultural Organizations

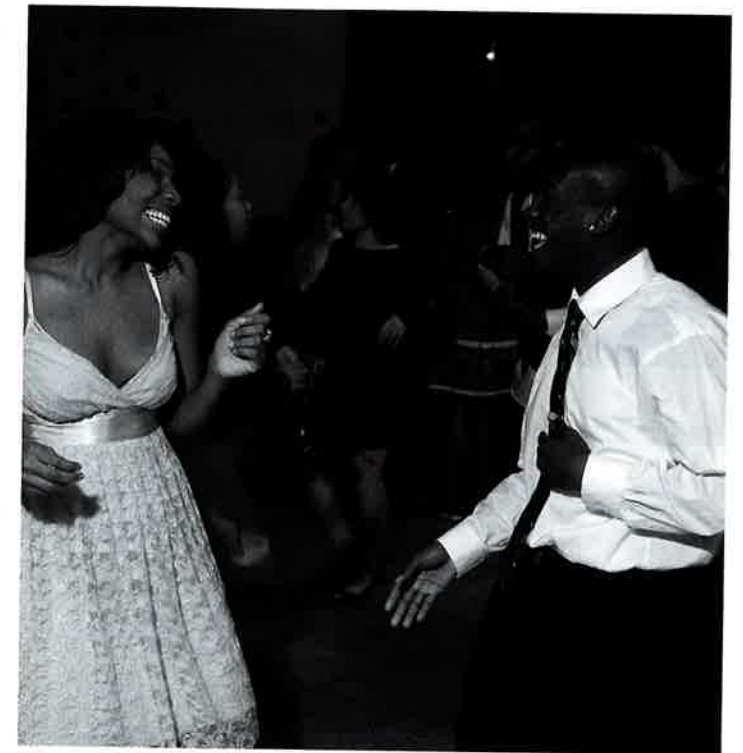

Celebrating culture and diversity at Hopkins...

Getting together with friends made in cultural organizations is a great way of bringing people together and a good break from studying.

Sharing culture and having fun at the same time! Students arrive at Hopkins from a variety of backgrounds and end up having a diverse group of friends. However, Hopkins does provide a place for people of the same culture to come together and celebrate the unique aspects of their culture.

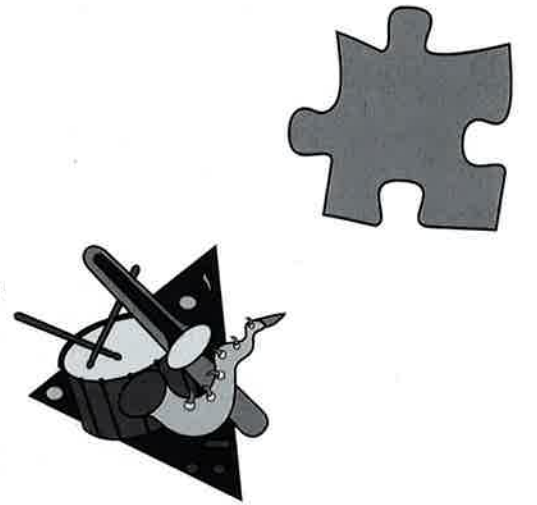

2009

Mattin Art Party

The Mattin Art Party provides a venue for a variety of different types of artists to display their artwork to the Hopkins and Baltimore communities.

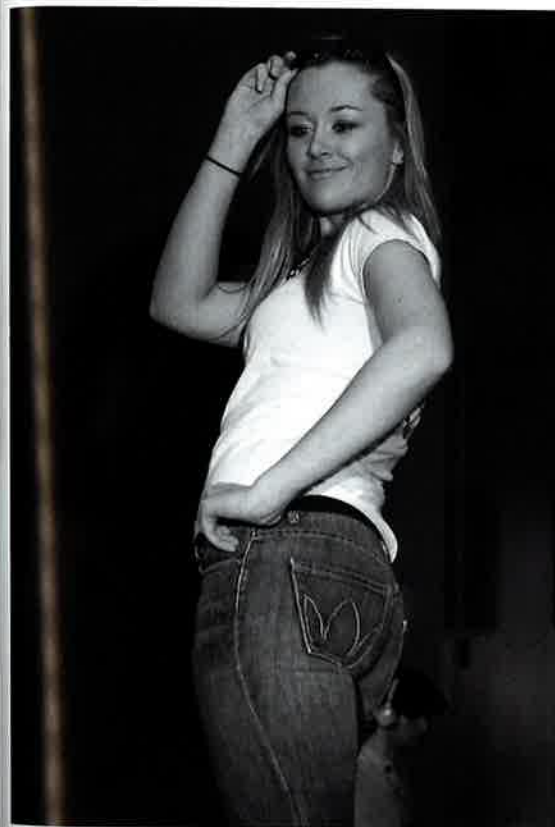

Enjoying Art...

Students attend the Mattin Art party for the variety and fun times they can have. Caricature artists and musicians (and good food...) are just some of the attractions.

Hopkins Top Model

Hopkins Top Model provides students from a variety of backgrounds to strut their stuff on the catwalk. Students can choose any style of fashion to model.

As students put their best foot forward and enjoy themselves on the runway, they also raise awareness and funds for various charitable organizations.

Students anxiously await the decision of the judges for the winners of this year's Hopkins Top Model

Pre-Orientation

Pre-O is a wonderful opportunity for incoming freshman to get to know each other before arriving at the Hopkins campus. A variety of outdoor exploration adventures are available to students. Everything from hiking, camping and rafting are available. Students get together for a week or two and start to form bonds with their fellow classmates before classes have even begun.

Students brave the elements and enjoy some fresh air.

S'more about...

Pre-Orientation

Students are excited to tackle the rapid waters.

Students paddle through the river and hike through the woods to experience the nature available to them in Maryland.

Freshman Orientation

The day is finally here!!!!

All summer long, incoming freshman looked forward to everything that Hopkins would hold for them. And now, that day is finally here. Students arrive on campus pumped up for all the orientation activities planned for them and eager to learn all the organizations, knowledge, friendships and memories that Hopkins will hold for them.

Students explore the Hopkins campus and go out in the community to provide service to Baltimore on their Involved! day.

Students arrive on campus bright and early ready to sort through all their belongings and see the place that will be their home for the next 9 months. Volunteers help move in the freshman's belongings while the new arrivals get their J-Card and dorm keys. There is definitely an air of excitement at these early hours of move-in weekend.

Freshman Orientation

Students excitedly attend the evening events planned during orientation even after a busy day of moving in and unpacking.

Move-In

Former President Brody greets parents as they come to drop-off the freshmen and unload carloads of belongings at the dorms to start their college experience.

Getting set up for the exciting year ahead! Getting to know the dormitories, campus and fellow Hopkins students is so much fun.

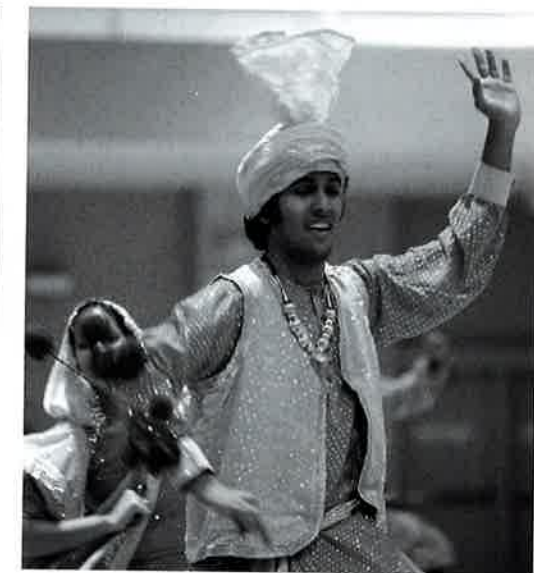

Parents help their children unpack their belongings and get settled in their new homes!

Checking in to get keys at the Wolman residence hall, a very exciting step for freshmen!

2008 Parent's Weekend

Diwali Celebration

The Diwali program organized by both the Hindu Student Council and the South Asian Students at Hopkins is a great opportunity for visiting parents to get a taste of Indian culture. Diwali is a national Indian holiday commemorated with religious ceremonies, special food, dancing and singing, much like the Diwali celebration at Hopkins!

The Diwali program is a great opportunity for many of the great student performance groups at Hopkins to showcase their talents and hard work. Kranti, the Indian acapella group, Shakti, the classical Indian dance group and Hopkins' bhangra and raas dance teams perform.

Crab Feast

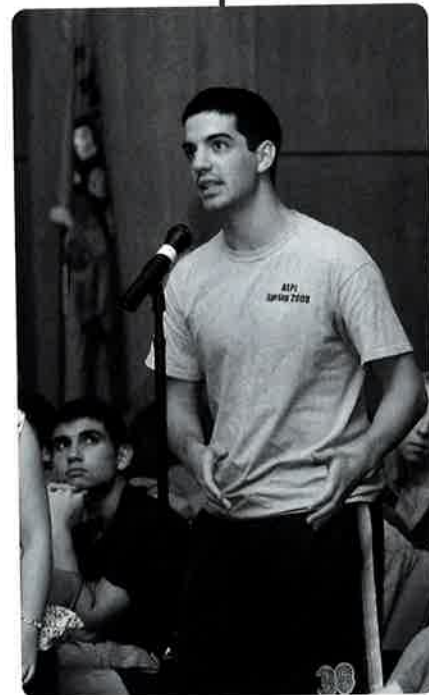

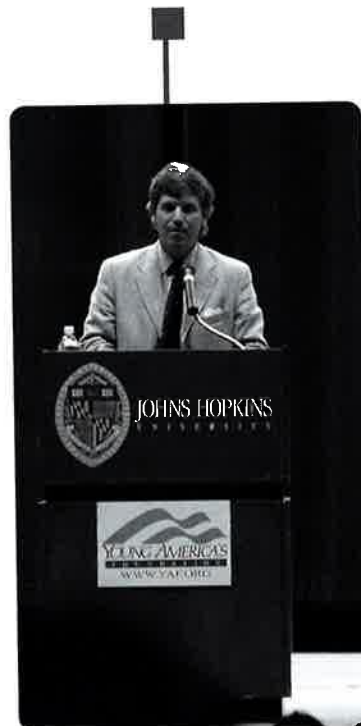

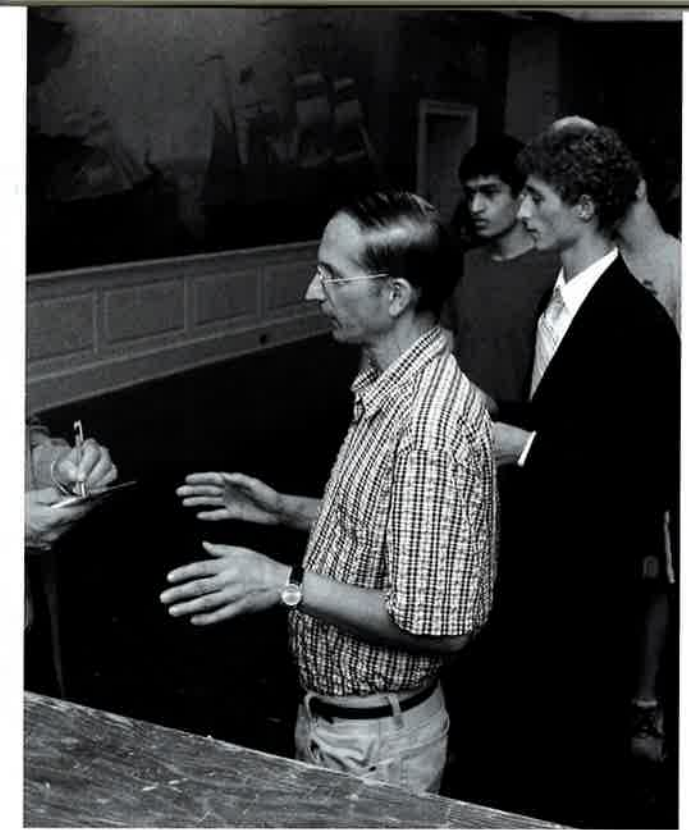

Current seniors celebrate their last year at Hopkins with a huge crab feast with all their friends!

MSE Symposium

The Symposium is run entirely by undergraduate students at Hopkins. Yearly, a theme is selected, speakers chosen, funds raised, student volunteers mobilized and events are then publicized.

The Symposium is a forum for the free exchange of ideas and analysis of important issues.

The Symposium is known for attracting some very prominent leaders, politicians, artists and scholars.

Fighting Against Cancer

Relay for Life

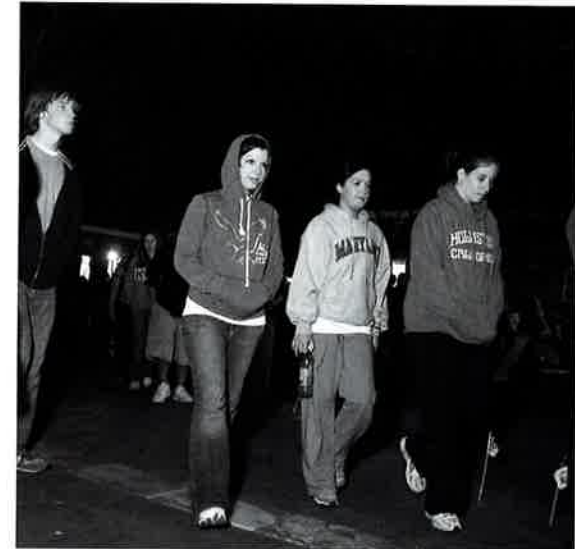

Students stay up all night walking to raise awareness for cancer. A variety of activities and games (and some strong coffee) help keep students awake.

Relay for Life is a national event that aims to raise awareness about the constant battle against cancer by fundraising and dedicating a night of walking in honor of those who have been impacted by cancer. Many student organizations collaborate to make the Relay for Life at Hopkins successful.

Students acting to make the world a better place and more aware.

Service/Volunteering

Students get their first exposure of volunteering at Freshman Orientation at Involved! Most students go on to provide service to the Baltimore community through a variety of ways.

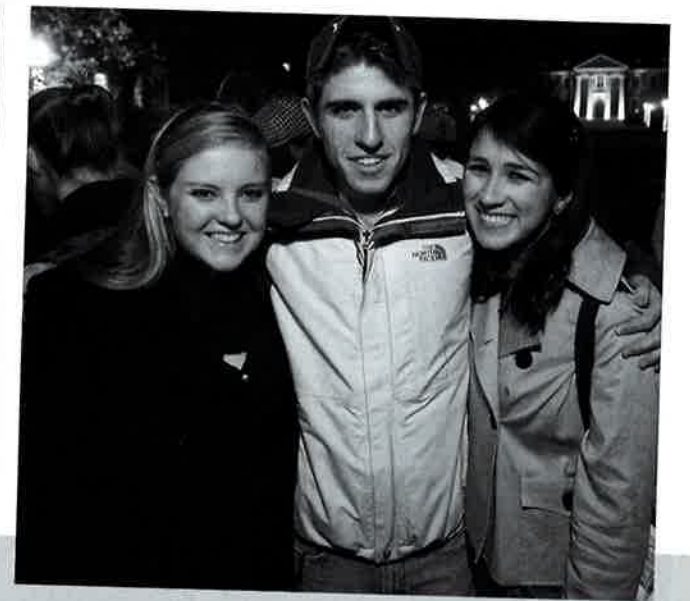

These students are working to beautify a Baltimore neighborhood.

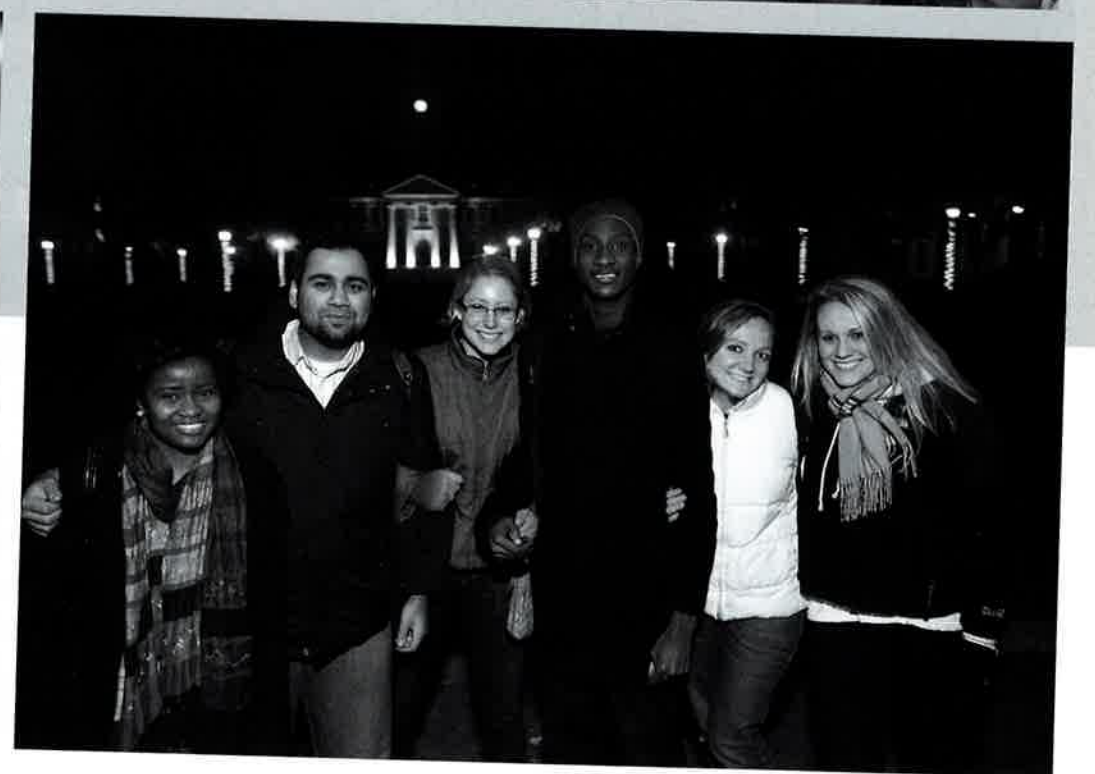

Lighting of the Quad

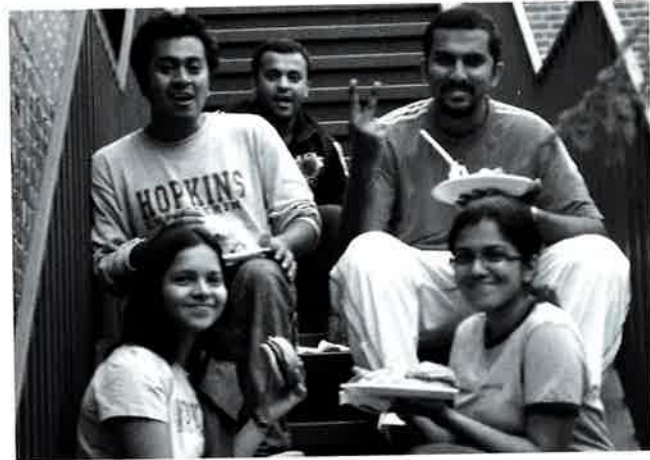

Lights are by no means the only attractions at the Lighting of the Quad, there are performances by talented acapella groups and plenty of hot chocolate to keep the audience warm!

The Lighting of the Quad is a fairly new tradition that is already beloved. It is a great way to get the holiday season started!

Fall Fest

Fall Fest is a weekend packed with fun-filled activities, delicious food and drink. It's perfect for socializing!

Fall Fest t-shirts are a great way to show Hopkins spirit!

Fall Fest is wonderful opportunity for recent graduates and alumni of Hopkins to come back and visit the campus and catch up with old friends, not to mention the great opportunity to make new ones!

Spring Fair

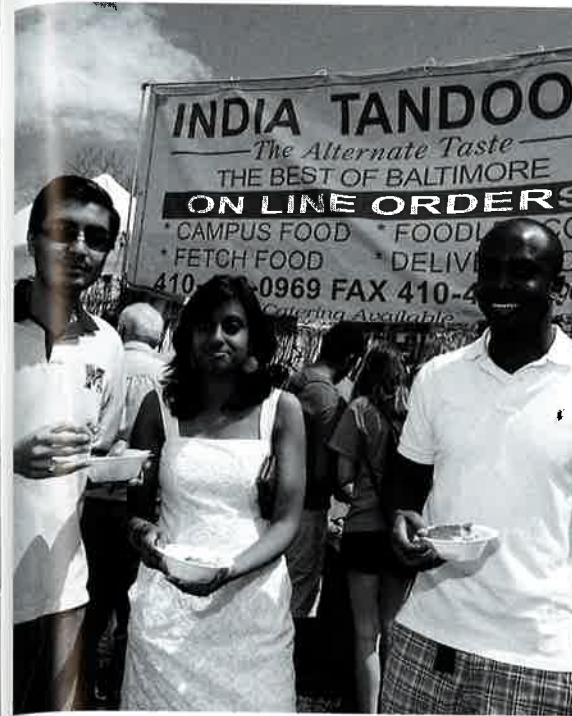

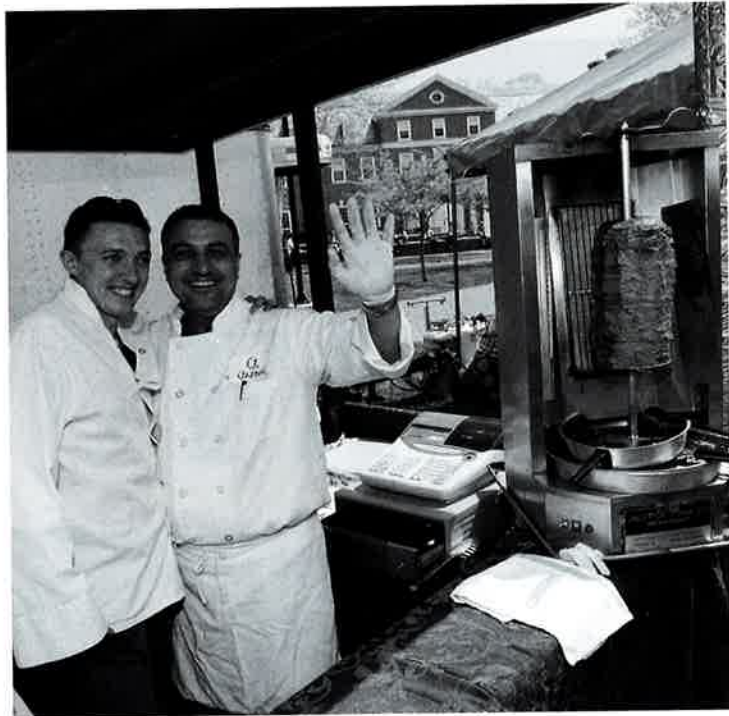

Students enjoy Spring Fair as the kickoff to the nice weather and all the activities available now that winter is over.

Spring Fair is an annual event hosted by Johns Hopkins that is enjoyed not only by students, but members of the community as well. A variety of foods, games and carnival type rides (for small children) attract everyone to the Hopkins campus during the beautiful spring weekend.

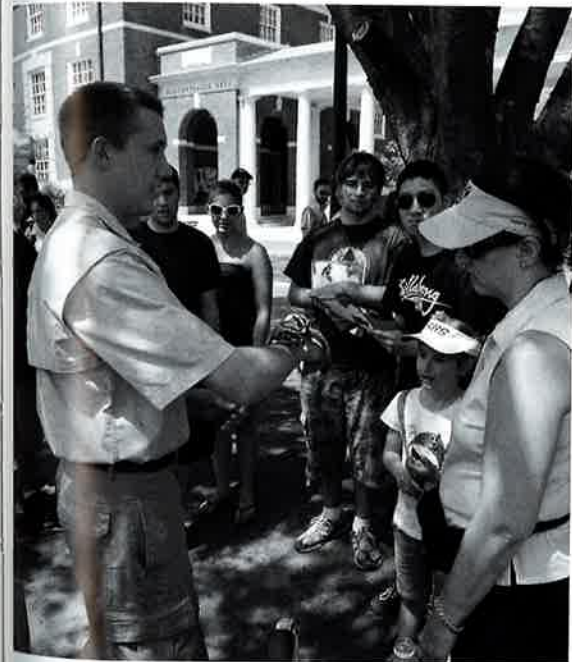

More Spring Fair Activities

Spring fair attracts not only families and students, but food enthusiasts as there are a variety of culinary options available. From smoothies to funnel cakes and even Irish food and turkey legs..

Attendees at the Spring Fair this year got the rare treat of seeing a sugar glider. So adorable!

Academics

Creating inventions to better tomorrow's world....

The theoretical work of many engineering students is being put to practical use. Creating and implementing their designs is a unique and challenging opportunity for these engineering students!

Engineering

Some of the undergraduate biomedical engineering students get the opportunity to share their hard work with other students and faculty at a design and research conference.

Learning by designing and building, novel new innovations are made regularly by engineering undergraduates at Hopkins.

Gilman Renovation

The renovation of the Gilman building is well under way and has students excited for all the new facilities this construction will offer for them. These include an inner courtyard and a curved atrium skylight.

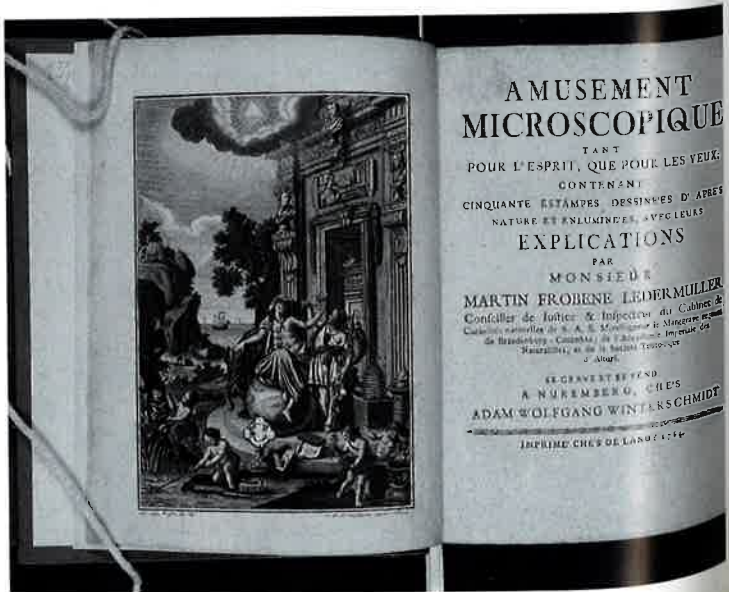

Social Sciences

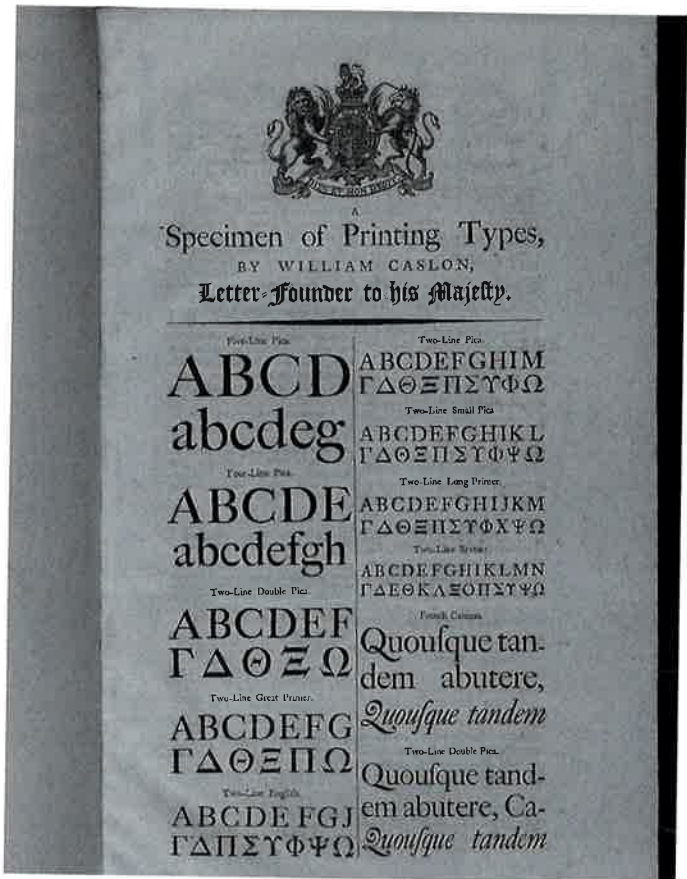

The incredible rare books collection at the Milton S. Eisenhower library is a great resource for many classes and students in furthering their studies, particularly of literature and history.

Students listen to, take notes on and follow along at a lecture given by a member of Hopkins faculty.

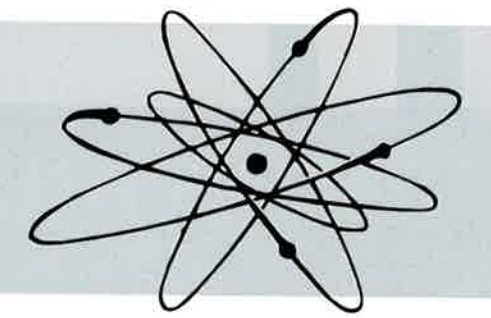

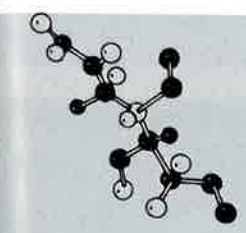

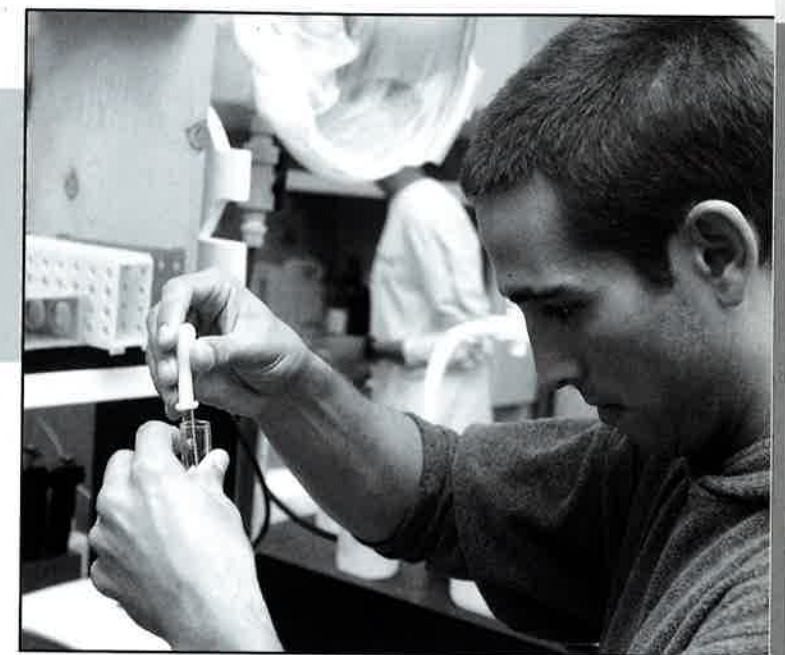

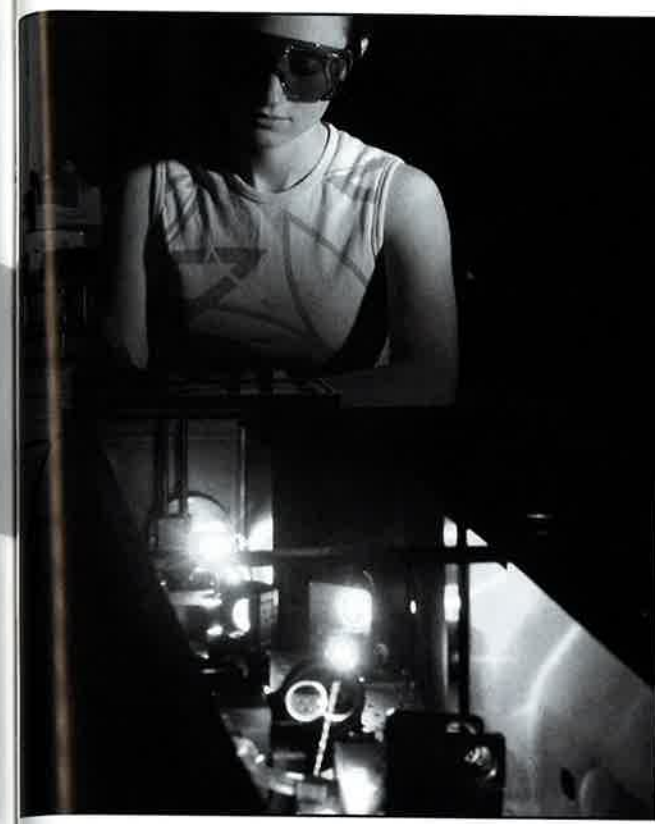

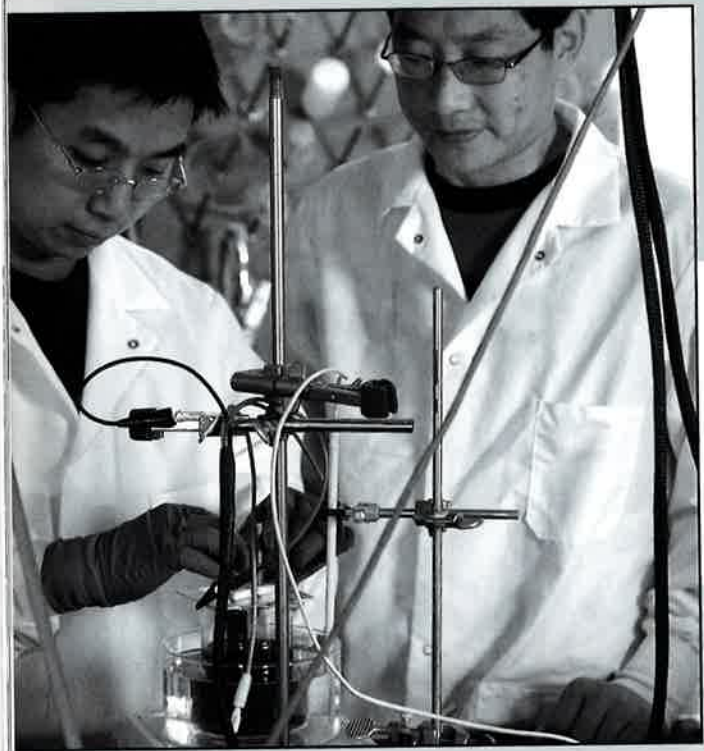

Students enjoy an interesting lecture.

Students are walking to class on the stairs of the Breezeway.

Natural Sciences

Students get a lot of hands on experience in a variety of scientific applications not only in the class room but through research with faculty at Hopkins.

The ever changing scientific world provides students with a stage to work out problems with real life applications.

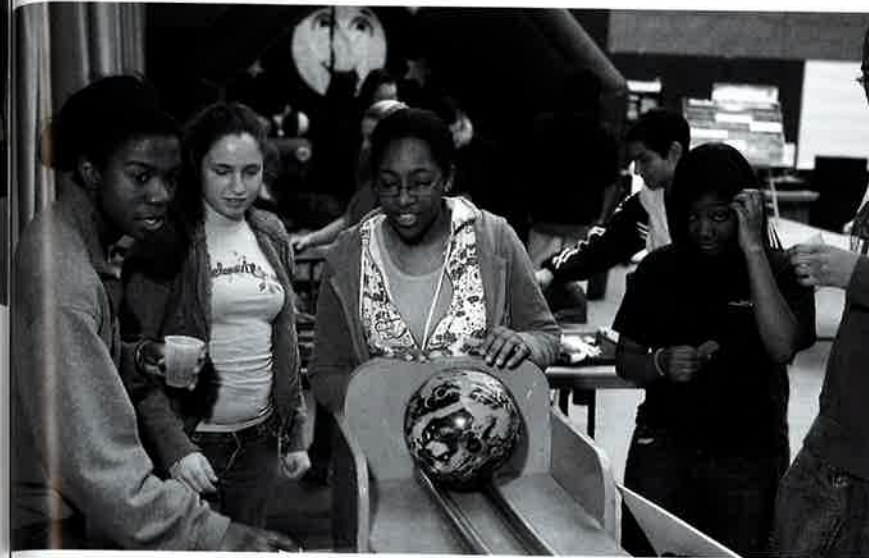

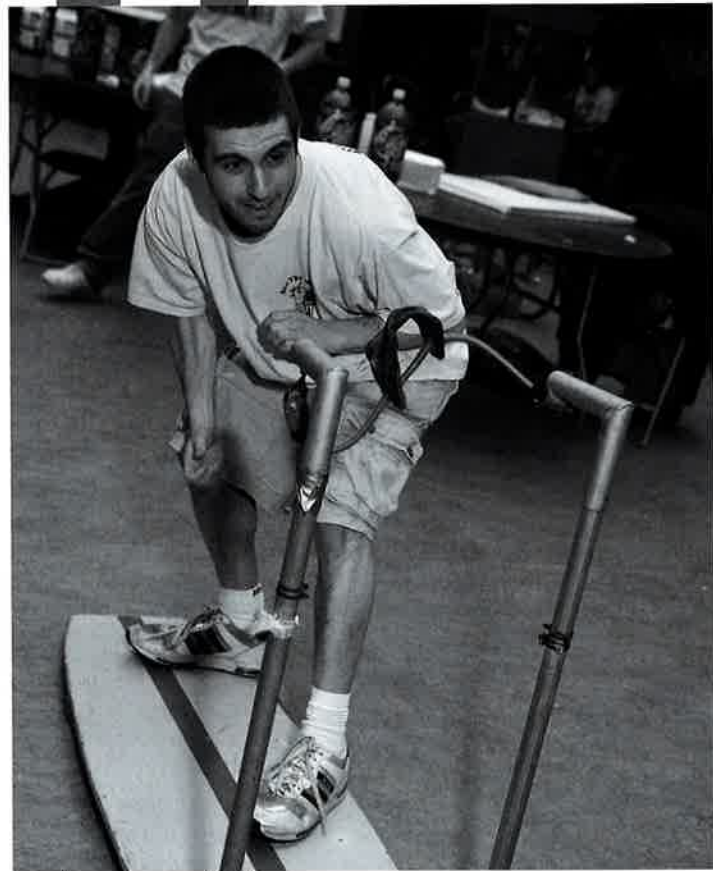

Students enjoy a variety of treats and scientific games at the annual Carnival held by the School of Engineering.

WSE Carnival

Whiting School of Engineering

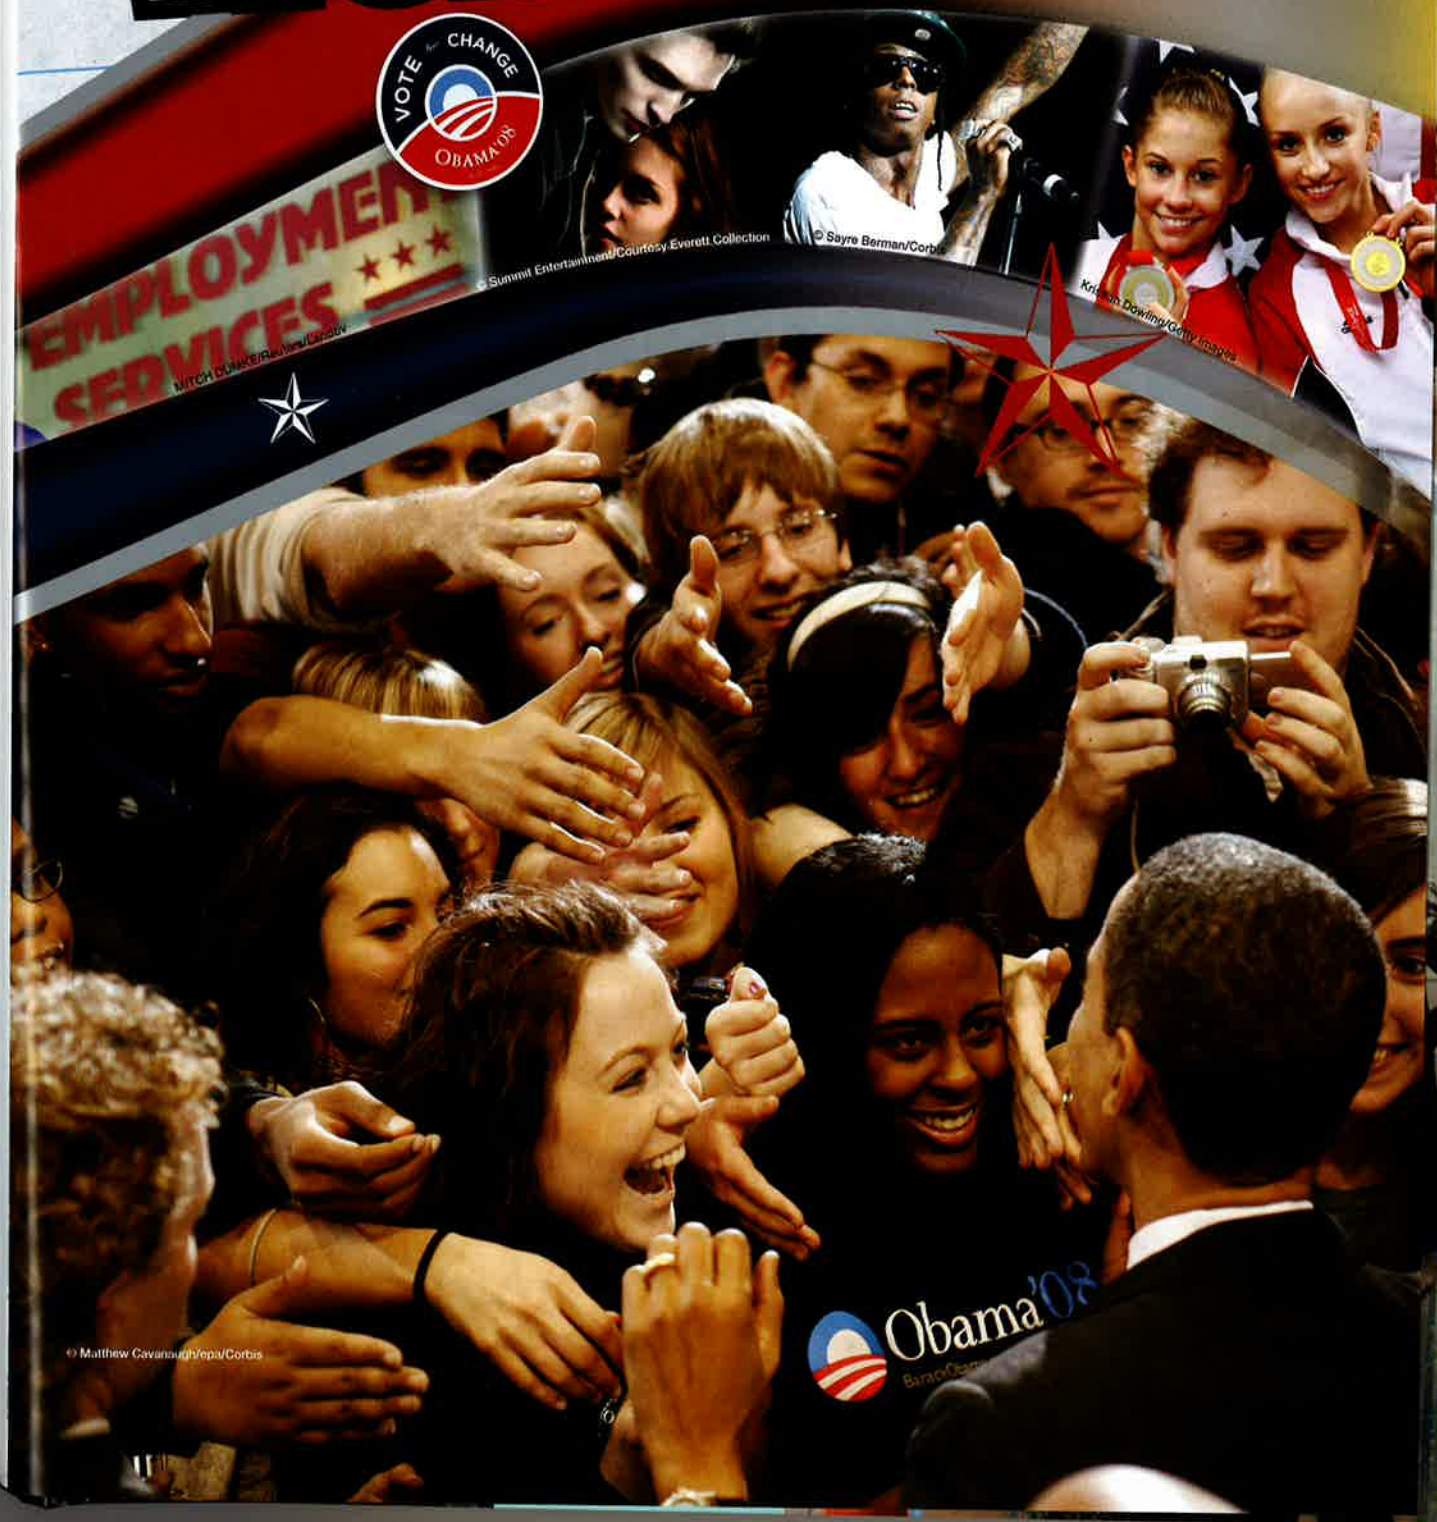

Students enjoy good times with their fellow engineering majors as they explore the different contraptions and games in store for them at the Engineering Carnival

Waves of Change

Politics in pop culture

Democratic Senator Joe Biden of Delaware becomes the 47th vice president of the United States. A member of the Senate since 1973, Biden brings long-time Washington experience to the Obama administration.

Obama's grassroots organization and innovative Web campaign is credited with inspiring young and first-time voters to participate heavily in the election.

First-time voters

The values, fashion and personal vitality of the Obama family resonate with Americans. Public interest in the first family rivals that of the interest in the Kennedy family in the 1960s.

Barack Obama makes history as the first African-American to win the presidency of the United States. The former Illinois senator promises an era of change that captures the imagination of voters nationwide.

Inauguration 1-20-09

Barack Obama is sworn in as the 44th president of the United States before millions in Washington, D.C. Obama's inaugural address calls for a "new era of responsibility" in the face of economic decline and a pledge to choose "hope over fear."

"We have chosen hope over fear..."

Economic Crisis

World News

Stocks plummet as years of excess in the U.S. housing market and lax supervision of financial institutions contribute to the greatest economic crisis since the Great Depression.

Unemployment rate hits 16-year high in January 2009

With buying power declining in the consumer marketplace, companies nationwide are forced to lay off workers. The national unemployment rate hits 7.2 percent in December and is rising steadily. The hardest hit states are Michigan, Rhode Island, California and South Carolina.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

Many retailers are forced to file for bankruptcy or go out of business after being unable to rebound from the harsh economy and a very disappointing fourth quarter of 2008.

Housing Foreclosures

Detroit's struggling "Big Three" automakers, General Motors, Ford and Chrysler, request and are eventually offered a bailout package of just over $17 billion in December.

Support our Troops

The world's "hot spots" center around the Middle East. Israel mounts a major offensive against Hamas in Gaza, the United States continues to oppose the Taliban in Afghanistan and insurgents in Iraq, and in August, Russia attacks its southern neighbor, Georgia, in a dispute over western influence in the area.

"Miracle on the Hudson"

In January 2009, after both engines fail due to ingesting birds, US Airways Flight 1549 ditches in New York's Hudson River. All 155 passengers and crew members are saved, thanks to the skill and courage of pilot Chesley B. "Sully" Sullenberger.

Public bicycle sharing systems, already popular in Europe, roll into American cities like Washington, D.C., to help fight traffic congestion and reduce pollution.

Tight money and high gas prices push auto manufacturers to investigate super fuel-efficient and electric cars. The Chevrolet Volt is an early contender and the tiny "Smart" car is already on American roads.

Chevy Volt

In September, Google and General Electric partner to develop clean technologies. Modernizing the national electric grid to enable wider deployment of wind, solar and geothermal energy will be an early priority.

Youth Volunteering

The green cleaning movement gains momentum nationally as environmentally safe non-toxic cleaning products are used in many homes, as well as state and city institutions.

Brad Pitt launches the "Make It Right" project to build 150 green-sensitive new homes in the New Orleans Lower 9th Ward, which was destroyed by Hurricane Katrina. Pitt contributes $5 million to the project.

National Day of Service

President-elect Obama asks all Americans to volunteer their time on the 2009 Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service, January 19, and to continue throughout the year. More than 12,000 service projects take place across the country.
