ABOARD THE DELUXE M.S. LE DIAMANT

European Coastal Civilizations
CULINARY TRADITIONS
C’EST BON!

MAY 18 TO 26, 2010
Dear Alumni & Friends:

From the old-world sophistication of Portugal to the artistic riches of Spain’s Basque Country and the rugged beauty of France’s Côte Sauvage, a riveting canvas of historic seaports, mountainous coastlines and enduring yet dynamic cultures is waiting to entice you. We are delighted to introduce this one-of-a-kind itinerary featuring the magnificent landscapes and captivating historical legacies of coastal Portugal, Spain and France and one of the United Kingdom’s charming Channel Islands.

Join fellow alumni and friends aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe M.S. Le Diamant, tracing sea lanes once plied by medieval merchants and world explorers. Set your own pace in each port by choosing from the attractively priced shore excursions or spending time at leisure. Linger over a glass of hearty port beside the Douro River in Portugal’s wine country. Walk in the footsteps of ancient pilgrims on the St. James Way in Santiago de Compostela. Cruise along a rocky stretch of Spain’s Costa Verde to the honey-colored streets and extraordinary medieval monuments of the hilly principality of Asturias. Observe the intriguing balance of age-old traditions and modern touches in Bilbao, with the opportunity for a special visit to the illustrious Guggenheim Museum. Survey the sheer cliffs and rolling moorlands of France’s “Beautiful Island,” Belle-Île-en-mer.

A special component of this offering is the exclusive “C’est Bon! Culinary Traditions” program, which celebrates the regional cuisines, wines and local foods of our ports of call. By special arrangement, join award-winning culinary author and special correspondent for Bon Appetit magazine Dorie Greenspan on a gastronomic journey like no other. Enjoy culinary lectures by Ms. Greenspan and a special joint cooking demonstration with the master chef of the M.S. Le Diamant. In addition, you will have the opportunity to enrich your appreciation of the cornucopia of flavors and delightful traditions of these coastal regions by participating in the optional “C’est Bon! Culinary Traditions” shore excursions, which feature exclusive tastings, visits and touring, accompanied by Ms. Greenspan.

Experience more of these remarkable cultures by choosing the Pre-Program Option in romantic Lisbon, Portugal, and/or the Post-Program Option in cosmopolitan Paris, France.

This intriguing travel program, an exceptional value featuring some of western Europe’s most enchanting treasures, including four UNESCO World Heritage sites, is sure to sell out quickly. Make your reservation today, while Early Booking Savings are still available.

Depart the U.S.

LISBON, PORTUGAL
Wednesday, May 19
Arrive in Lisbon and embark the deluxe M.S. LE DIAMANT. Join your traveling companions for the Captain’s welcome reception and dinner this evening.

LEIXÕES/OPORTO
Thursday, May 20
Dock in Leixões, northern Portugal’s principal port. Spend the day at leisure or join the optional excursion to nearby Oporto, the hub of the Douro River’s port wine trade, where you can see traditional barrels of port being loaded onto typical Portuguese rabelos, or sailboats. Visit the Church of São Francisco in the historic city center and the Stock Exchange, with its elaborate Arabian Hall inspired by the famous Moorish Alhambra.

A renowned local chef introduces you to Portuguese specialties and wine during lunch in an upscale seaside restaurant on the optional culinary excursion. Then, stroll through the lively Mercado do Bolhão, the two-story market in the heart of Oporto. Tour the cellars of Sandeman, world-famous port producers, walk among the seasoned oak casks and enjoy a tasting of this sweet fortified wine.

SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA, SPAIN/LA CORUNA
Friday, May 21
Today, choose to cruise the fjord-like coastal inlets from Villagarcía to La Coruña or participate in the optional full-day excursion into the oak- and pine-forested hills of Galicia, one of Spain’s self-governed principalities that radiates an unexpectedly Celtic atmosphere. The golden-hued granite buildings of its well-preserved capital, Santiago de Compostela, lend a warm glow to the almost completely pedestrianized streets leading to the expansive Plaza del Obradoiro. Tour Santiago de Compostela’s grand and highly revered Romanesque cathedral, built to enshrine the tomb of St. James and recognized for its distinctive Baroque façade, original medieval portico and incomparable Churriguerosque altar. This national monument and UNESCO World Heritage site has been a pilgrimage destination since the Middle Ages. Enjoy a specially arranged lunch in a renowned 16th-century parador.

Continue to La Coruña, dubbed “the crystal city” for its harbor-side houses with glass-enclosed balconies. See the restored Castle of San Antón, former fortress and military prison, now the archeological museum. Stop at the acclaimed Tower of Hercules, a working lighthouse since ancient Roman times and newly inscribed on UNESCO’s World Heritage list. From Mount San Pedro, enjoy a panoramic view of the city and sea before you reboard the ship.

Cover: For centuries, oak casks of Oporto’s eponymous ruby and tawny port have been transported along the Douro River on traditional flat-bottomed rabelos.

Experience the beauty of the Channel Islands in St. Peter Port, a busy entrepôt graced with a charming blend of French-influenced Georgian and Regency styles.
During the optional culinary excursion, browse the fresh produce market in Santiago de Compostela with culinary guru Dorie Greenspan. A local sommelier introduces you to regional wines, produced from grapes unique to Galicia.

GIJON
Saturday, May 22
Today, the patchwork of terraced fields and vineyards gives way to the rolling meadows of the principality of Asturias. Call at the breezy port of Gijon on the Bay of Biscay. Spend the day at leisure or join the optional excursion to beautiful Oviedo, the capital city of Asturias. Walk through the yellow-stoned squares and narrow streets, delightfully free of motor vehicles. Visit the Gothic cathedral, an unusually simple structure in the center of this wealthy and modern city, whose precious crucifixes and relics were rescued from Toledo before it was conquered by the Moors. Continue to the Mirador de la Providencia for fantastic views of Turtle Island, the high cliffs of Spain’s Green Coast and, on clear days, see the majestic Picos de Europa farther inland.

Today’s optional culinary excursion takes you to a specially arranged espicha, a typical, festive Asturian gathering featuring tapas and locally pressed cider.

BILBAO
Sunday, May 23
Surrounded by the verdant Basque Mountains, Bilbao is home to the iconic Guggenheim Museum of Contemporary Art, designed by the much-lauded architect Frank Gehry. Stroll through its galleries on the optional tour of this repository of pop art, minimalism, Arte Povera and conceptual works by contemporary Spanish and Basque artists. Afterward, enjoy a brief orientation tour of the city to see the casco viejo (old quarter) and the promenade of El Arenal, a popular route for Bilbainos’ evening paseos (leisurely strolls), before returning to the ship.

BELLE-ÎLE-EN-MER, FRANCE
Monday, May 24
This morning, arrive in Belle-Île-en-mer, the “Beautiful Island” off the coast of Brittany. On the optional panoramic tour, contemplate the unique beauty of its stunning Côte Sauvage. See the sheer seaside cliffs, wind-carved rock formations and hillsides blanketed in heather along this “wild coast” that inspired a series of paintings by the French Impressionist Claude Monet. Enjoy lunch in the Vauban citadel during the optional culinary excursion. By special arrangement, skilled crêpières will prepare one of Brittany’s most famous gastronomic delights, sweet and savory crêpes.
GUERNSEY, CHANNEL ISLANDS, UNITED KINGDOM
Tuesday, May 25
An English outpost located off the coast of France, Guernsey is a fascinating mosaic of fishing villages, greenhouses and fields dotted with its well-known chestnut-brown-and-white dairy cows. The island's distinct culture is a delightful amalgam of English tradition and French lifestyle. Its capital, St. Peter Port, is an old Regency town distinguished by granite buildings and wrought-iron garden railings. It was here that Victor Hugo lived in exile from 1855 until 1870 and wrote Les Miserables. After lunch on board, enjoy the sights of Guernsey or join the optional excursion to historic Sausmarez Manor, where the Seigneur of Guernsey, whose family has lived on the estate for nearly a millennium, will personally welcome you to his charming 18th-century home, one of the finest examples of Queen Anne architecture. Enjoy a scenic return to St. Peter Port for time at leisure.

HONFLEUR, FRANCE/U.S.
Wednesday, May 26
Disembark the ship in Honfleur, and transfer to Paris for your return flight to the U.S.

LISBON PRE-PROGRAM OPTION*
Expand your cultural experience with two nights in Portugal's romantic capital, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Enjoy included excursions to Lisbon's most important monuments and visit nearby Sintra and its famous National Palace.

PARIS POST-PROGRAM OPTION*
Extend your program with a guided tour of Honfleur and two nights in the deluxe InterContinental Paris-Le Grand, located adjacent to the Opéra Garnier and near the Louvre. See Paris' landmarks and admire the famous Musée Jacquemart-André.

*Complete details will be included with your reservation confirmation.
The M.S. Le Diamant is a rare find—an oceangoing vessel that combines the deluxe amenities and superior standards offered aboard a larger ship with the intimate charm and enhanced navigability of a yacht. Distinguished by its intimate, casual ambiance and personal, attentive service, this exceptional vessel is continually refurbished to ensure that the highest standards of comfort and elegance are maintained.

All 113 spacious, outside staterooms or suites (ranging in size from 183 sq. ft. to 398 sq. ft.) are tastefully appointed and feature two lower twin beds that convert to one queen bed upon request, a private bathroom with shower (some staterooms have bathtubs and showers), air conditioning, telephone, television, DVD, minibar, double full-length closets, two nightstands, desk, hair dryer, duvets and plush terry cloth robes.

Continental breakfast, buffet breakfast, buffet lunch, afternoon tea, dinner and late-evening snack are served daily in single, unassigned seatings. The Restaurant Îles de France offers innovative Continental fare in a relaxed, inviting setting. Guests may reserve a table at L’Escapade restaurant for more intimate evening dining. Complimentary house wine, beer, soft drinks, mineral water,
coffee and tea are served at lunch and dinner.
Room service is also available.

The ship has three lounges, where nightly
entertainment includes a cabaret performance and live music. Additionally, the ship has a library, boutique, fitness center and hair salon. A certified physician and masseur are on board. Two elevators provide access to all passenger decks. The M.S. Le Diamant complies with the highest international environmental and safety standards.
FEATURING CULINARY EXPERT

DORIE GREENSPAN, considered “a culinary guru” by The New York Times, is an award-winning author, special correspondent for Bon Appétit magazine, frequent contributor to Parade magazine, food critic for the Louis Vuitton City Guide to New York and regular guest on National Public Radio’s “All Things Considered” and “Splendid Table.” Winner of five James Beard and IACP awards, including Cookbook of the Year, Dorie is also the co-author of two cookbooks with Pierre Hermé, Paris’ “king of pastry,” and had the great honor of writing Baking with Julia, the book that accompanied Julia Child’s PBS Television series. She has over 30 years of baking experience both at home and in the kitchens of some of the best chefs in America and France.

On this cultural and epicurean journey, Dorie introduces you to the seductive flavors and heritage of “Culinary Traditions” across the coastal regions of Portugal, Spain, France and the Channel Islands of the United Kingdom. Here, food preparation and consumption are not merely daily rituals but celebrations of life itself. Join Dorie as she shares her insights during a series of gastronomic lectures and offers commentary during an exclusive demonstration by the master chef of the M.S. LE DIAMANT. In addition, daily meals feature specially prepared dishes corresponding to the day’s destination. Dorie accompanies our custom-designed and exclusively arranged optional “C’est Bon! Culinary Traditions” excursions:

♦ Savor a traditional Portuguese lunch, tour the world-famous Sandeman Cellars and sample their hearty port wine.
♦ Enjoy an exclusive Spanish wine tasting and food pairing with an expert sommelier.
♦ Experience the revelry of espicha—a traditional and festive gathering to taste local tapas and cider.
♦ Dine on made-to-order crêpes, one of Brittany’s great culinary traditions, during a specially arranged lunch.

See the remarkable bounty of Spain’s markets, where professional and amateur chefs alike flock in search of the freshest seasonal produce.

CONTRACT: TERMS & CONDITIONS

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport fees; visas and fees for obtaining visas; personal expenses such as laundry and telephone calls; accident/sickness, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; gratuities to ship personnel; optional sightseeing excursions; excess baggage charges on aircraft; local departure taxes; local taxes, airport facility taxes and federal inspection fees not listed in the “Included Features” section; transfers and baggage handling not/before 6:00 a.m. or after 10:00 p.m. on days of arrival and/or departure 31 if you have not purchased your air arrangements through Thomas P. Gohagan & Company, or 2) if you are arriving earlier or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); meals and alcoholic beverages not listed in the “Included Features” section; and all other services not specifically mentioned in the “Included Features” section.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline (not Thomas P. Gohagan & Company), even if purchased through Thomas P. Gohagan & Company.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. Please contact your airlines for the most current luggage allowance policy.

HEALTH: Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received in the offices of Thomas P. Gohagan & Company in writing, accompanied by the required deposit, by October 14, 2009. In the event a “discounted” reservation must be cancelled, no “replacement” reservation can be substituted only at the full-fare tariff. Change and/or cancellation fees apply as outlined in this “Contract: Terms and Conditions” for the “replacement” reservation and the cancelled reservation.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Cancellations for all or any part of the trip will not be effective until received in writing in the offices of Thomas P. Gohagan & Company. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply: reservation cancellations are subject to a $200 per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 120 days prior to departure; from 95 through 119 days prior to departure, $650 per person; from 60 through 94 days prior to departure, 50% of the published full regular tariff; cancellations 59 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariff. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees and administrative fees will be assessed.

PRE-PROGRAM AND POST-PROGRAM CANCELLATIONS: Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply: reservation cancellations are subject to a $50 per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 120 days prior to departure; from 95 through 119 days prior to departure, $200 per person; from 60 through 94 days prior to departure, 50% of the published full regular tariff; cancellations 59 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariff. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees and administrative fees will be assessed.

Because these cancellation policies are strictly enforced, we strongly recommend for your protection that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. Trip cancellation insurance is available through Thomas P. Gohagan & Company for comprehensive coverage of such expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident, as well as damaged or lost luggage. We will send you an application after you make your reservation.

RESPONSIBILITY: Thomas P. Gohagan & Company, the sponsoring institution or association, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, agents, and assigns (collectively “Gohagan”), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity of any third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, strikers, animals, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind, sickness, illness, the lack of availability of or access to appropriate medical attention, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart on time.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner’s risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept or retain any person as a participant on these trips at any time. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel/itinerary.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall be not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of such changes. Gohagan may cancel a trip for any reason whatsoever; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to it. Gohagan is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. All fares, as well as ship schedules, port calls, hours of arrival and departure, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change or cancellation without prior notice. Gohagan shall not be required to refund any portion of the fare or make any other compensation under these circumstances.
