The France Chapter of the Johns Hopkins Alumni Association in the presence of Kenneth H. Keller, Director of Bologna Center cordially invites you to a lecture on

NATO and its Future
“Global Ramifications of the August 2008 Russia-Georgia Crisis”

with Hall Gardner, SAIS MA’82, PhD’87
Visiting Professor SAIS-Nanjing (1988-89) and SAIS-Washington (1989-90)
Professor and Chair, Department of International and Comparative Politics, American University of Paris
Member of the East West Institute Experts Group on Euro-Atlantic Security

Tuesday, February 23rd, 2010

American University of Paris
Room Combes C-31, 3rd Floor
6 rue du Colonel Combes 75007 Paris

Welcome Cocktail 7:00 – 7:40 pm
Remarks by Director Keller 7:40 – 8:00 pm
Presentation by Hall Gardner 8:00 – 9:00 pm
Light Buffet 9:00 – 9:45 pm

Cost: 20 euros
Includes wine bar & Mediterranean buffet

Advance reservations required by Monday February 15th, 2010.
Payment by check only, to the order of Association Johns Hopkins
Please mail check to:
Association Johns Hopkins/Bikem Ibrahimoglu,
144 rue de Rennes, Paris 75006

Questions? Please contact Bikem Ibrahimoglu (SAIS 1993):
jhu.french.chapter@gmail.com
+33 6 33 08 59 33

---

Name:.........................................................School:...............................Class year:..................
Address:.................................................................................................................................
Telephone:..............................................Email:.................................................................
Number of guests:.....................................................................................................................
Payment:..................................................Date:.................................................................
Signature:................................................