Dear Johns Hopkins Alumni and Friends,

Visit lands rich with history and scenic splendor as you sail the North Sea to some of the loveliest ports in the British Isles and southern Norway. Depart Copenhagen and head to the Norwegian ports of Flåm and Bergen and revel in historic Viking ports, breathtaking snow-capped mountain landscapes, and the world’s most majestic fjords. Cruise to Scotland, stopping first in the Shetland Islands, known for beautiful valleys, charming villages, and its well-known ponies; then in Invergordon to experience the rugged beauty of the Scottish Highlands. Explore Belfast, the capital of Northern Ireland, a city filled with splendid Victorian and Edwardian buildings, then find yourself in Ireland’s capital, Dublin, where you can see the magnificent Book of Kells at Trinity College. Visit Waterford, the city famed for its crystal, and Falmouth, Cornwall’s leading port city with a rich maritime heritage, before concluding your journey in London.

THE BENEFITS OF BEING MID-SIZE ARE BEYOND MEASURE

Marina was purpose-built to be warm and intimate, yet replete with breathtaking services and amenities. Every square inch of her is a marvel, the ideal and harmonious balance of size and benefit. She gracefully enters celebrated boutique ports that are off-limits to larger vessels. Marina is the perfect example of what a mid-size vessel should be. On Oceania Cruises, guests enjoy life at sea as it was meant to be: Relaxed. Intimate. Refined.

ELEGANCE HAS NEVER BEEN MORE INVITING OR SERVICE SO REFINED

Never before have accommodations been so unusually spacious or contained such unrivaled attention to detail. Each stateroom and suite is a unique private retreat, beautifully decorated and so voluminous that most include a separate shower and full-size tub. The extraordinarily high staff-to-guest ratio affords service so polished, flawless, and endearing that every whim is graciously indulged. Impeccable service is the hallmark of the warm and gracious staff.

Oceania Cruises may modify the cruise itinerary up to and during the voyage.
FLÅM (Sognefjord), NORWAY Surrounded by steep mountains, thundering waterfalls, and emerald-green valleys, tiny Flåm clings to the innermost part of Sognefjord, Europe’s longest, deepest fjord. It’s a fairy-tale setting that can be enjoyed many ways. Consider a ride on the Flåm Railway, one of the world’s steepest, as it loops through the virgin wilderness, just as it has since the 1940s. Perhaps visit Otternes Bygdetun, a rural museum of more than twenty farm buildings that look much like they did in the 18th century.

BÉLGIE, NÓRUEGA Discover this city of ornate Victorian and Edwardian architecture, gracious gardens, and friendly pubs. Or, see the natural phenomenon of the Giant’s Causeway, a stunning geological anomaly of tightly packed, uneven basalt columns disappearing into the sea.

DUBLÍN, IRLANDA Cosmopolitan Dublin is the capital and largest city in Ireland. Visit historic Trinity College and see the magnificently decorated Book of Kells. Tour majestic St. Patrick’s Cathedral, where Jonathan Swift is buried, and stroll through lovely St. Stephen’s Green, a picturesque city park immortalized by James Joyce in Ulysses.

BERGEN, NÓRUEGA Norway’s medieval capital pays homage to its past with wooden houses and cobbled streets that grace the historic Bryggen area around the wharf. Here, the Hanseatic Museum reveals a glimpse of working life in the Middle Ages, and the eerie, 13th-century Rosenkrantz Tower offers a phenomenal view of the seaport. The modern city offers attractions such as the Akvarett city aquarium and Trolls’ Hill, the romantic summer villa of Norwegian composer Edvard Grieg.

LÉRVIK (SHETLAND ISLANDS), SCOTLAND Enjoy a taste of the Highlands on a drive through the island’s rugged moors, beautiful valleys and flower-filled meadows with romping Shetland ponies. Visit quaint villages like Scalloway with its ruined castle, or explore the fascinating Jarlshof prehistoric site, occupied for several thousand years.

INVERGORDON, SCOTLAND Invergordon, a seaport in northern Scotland, has long been recognized for its rich naval history. Northern Scotland, known as the Highlands, is one of the most scenic places in Europe, a landscape of mountains and forested hills. Venture into the Highlands where the local clan castles perch on rugged hills.

Go Next will offer a unique collection of Oceania Cruises shore excursions; available for purchase approximately 4 months prior to departure.

Shore excursions are not included. In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above.
