Reflect on the beauty of Lake Beauvert in Jasper National Park and explore Athabasca Glacier on an ice-age adventure that includes a ride on an Ice Explorer!

July 29 – Arrive Calgary
Your departure is 3:00 PM from Calgary International Airport. For guests who are spending the previous night in Calgary, an airport transfer from Calgary International Airport to The Westin is included, pick-up time today is 3:00 PM at The Westin Calgary. Best of the Canadian Rockies begins with a journey from Calgary International Airport that takes you across the last few miles of Canadian prairie to Kananaskis country. Located in the foothills and front ranges of the Canadian Rockies, the alpine scenery is a feast for the eyes! You’ll be staying at the Delta Lodge at Kananaskis, where Lake Louise vistas frame each window during your two-night stay.

August 1 – The Icefields Parkway
Experience some of the most breathtaking scenery in North America today when you take the amazing journey along the Icefields Parkway to Jasper National Park. This stretch of highway is considered by many to be the most spectacular in the Canadian national parks system. Meals BD

August 2 – Jasper National Park
The striking natural landscapes and carefully protected ecosystems of Jasper National Park are truly a photographer’s paradise—and they are yours to enjoy as you please today with Jasper Your Way, where it’s your choice of an included discovery tour within Jasper National Park. Choices include an “Experience Maligne Valley” tour that offers a guided walk along the Maligne Lake shoreline; a “Wilderness Discovery Tour” where you explore area landscapes with a wildlife interpreter; a white-water rafting adventure on the Athabasca River, or a journey through Jasper’s alpine tundra aboard the Jasper Tramway.

Meals BD

August 3 – Ice Explorer Ride
Return to Banff National Park, crown jewel of the Rockies, once again along the Icefields Parkway. You’ll enjoy the park’s unspoiled natural beauty from different vantage points today. View mighty Athabasca Falls and the two monumental peaks framing Athabasca Glacier, the famed glacier originates in the Columbia Icefield, whose waters flow into the Atlantic, Pacific and Arctic oceans. It’s a memorable climb up the surface of the glacier aboard a specially designed Ice Explorer vehicle, where you’ll get a good look at the geological features of glaciers as well as learning a bit about their formation. Your vantage point continually changes on the journey. Arrive in Banff National Park, lending an air of tranquility. The town of Jasper is interesting, with its small town atmosphere and chalet-style architecture. Meals BD

August 4 – Banff Nat’l Park
The village of Banff rivals the chic alpine villages of the Rocky Mountains in the western United States; it is interesting, with its small town atmosphere and typical Rocky Mountains elegance. Drive to the Banff Park Museum National Historic Site of Canada. Join us for a farewell reception with local entertainment followed by dinner at the Banff Centre’s Three Ravens Restaurant. Meals BD

Meals BD

Tour ends: 10:00 AM at Calgary International Airport. Travel back to Calgary (approximately 80 miles).

Johns Hopkins Reservation Form: Best of the Canadian Rockies – and a perfect travel experience to share with your family, friends and fellow Alumni. In addition to featuring rooms with a view at acclaimed Fairmont wilderness resorts, this trip includes virtually every travel expense, from most meals and guided sightseeing to educational presentations with local experts who share insider perspectives not available on your own.

Special highlights include a drive along spectacular Icefields Parkway, a ride atop Athabasca Glacier aboard an Ice Explorer, a choice of wilderness adventures in Jasper National Park – whitewater rafting, a wilderness discovery tour, a tramway trip and more – and a Heritage Passport to the Banff Park Museum during your stay in Banff National Park. Find all the day-to-day details inside, then call to reserve your space today.
