ORIG. This ancient land of the pharaohs is a passion of our hearts. Throughout the centuries, the legendary Temples of Luxor have elicited divine, inspired, and wonder alive. The outside and inside, and the Magnificent Temples of Aswan and Edfu have been intricately detailed and richly endowed with images and moodscapes. Egypt’s history and culture are expressed in its ancient monuments and artifacts. Its followers are the ancient ones who built the pyramids and temples of the pharaohs. The essence of Egypt is yours to discover on a Nile River Cruise.

CAIRO

Enjoy a tour of the pyramids, Sphinx, and Saqqara before and after your Nile cruise. The great Temple of Ramses II at Luxor is the most magnificent Egyptian monument. The presence of the Nile River brings you to the heart of Ancient Egypt where the pharaohs once ruled. As you sail along the Nile, you will see the Pyramids of Giza, Sphinx, and Valley of the Kings. You will also visit the vast Egyptian Museum in Cairo. As you explore the ancient sites, you will be amazed by the beauty and magnificence of these structures.

NILE RIVER CRUISE

The Nile River is the longest river in the world, stretching over 4,135 miles from its source in the Nile Delta to the Mediterranean Sea. The Nile River is considered the cradle of civilization, and it has been the lifeblood of Egypt for thousands of years. As you sail along the river, you will see the remains of ancient Egyptian tombs and temples, as well as modern cities and villages.

Luxor

Luxor is home to the most magnificent Egyptian monuments. The Great Temple of Ramses II is one of the largest temples in Egypt, and it is dedicated to the god Amun. The temple is divided into two different parts, the Mortuary Temple and the Hypostyle Hall. The temple is surrounded by a large enclosure wall, and it is filled with beautiful carvings and reliefs.

Aswan

Aswan is a city on the southern end of the Nile River. It is known for its beautiful temples, including the Temple of Abu Simbel. The temple is dedicated to the gods Ramses II and Nefertari, and it is surrounded by a large enclosure wall. Aswan is also famous for its rock temples, which are carved directly into the rock.

EXCURSIONS

Disembark from your ship and enjoy a guided tour of the city of Luxor or visit the Temple of Philae, dedicated to the goddess Isis. You will also have the opportunity to visit the city of Aswan and see the Temple of Kalabsha. Aswan is also home to the Aswan Dam, which was built to control the flow of the Nile River. The dam is located on the west bank of the river, and it is considered a wonder of modern engineering.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Cruise the Nile River in five-star style aboard the Sonesta St. George I. Comfort and elegance are the hallmark of this luxurious cruise ship. Each cabin is equipped with a bathroom, air conditioning, and a comfortable bed. The ship offers a variety of dining options, as well as entertainment and leisure activities. A trip down the Nile is not complete without a visit to the famous city of Luxor. The city is filled with ancient monuments and artifacts, and it is considered the cradle of civilization.
