Istanbul, known previously as Constantinople and Byzantium peoples who have lived here. Istanbul, known currently as Istanbul, is a city of more than 15 million inhabitants. It stretches across the Bosphorus Strait, which connects the Black Sea to the Sea of Marmara and separates Europe and Asia. The city is divided into two parts: the European side to the north and the Asian side to the south. Istanbul is a city of contrast, where ancient and modern, East and West, historical and contemporary meet. The city is characterized by a rich cultural heritage, including numerous World Heritage sites, such as the Hagia Sophia, Topkapi Palace, and the Blue Mosque. Istanbul is a melting pot of different cultures and traditions, making it a unique destination for visitors interested in history, art, and food. The city's cuisine is influenced by its location at the crossroads of Europe and Asia, blending elements of Mediterranean, Middle Eastern, and European cuisines.
Dear Johns Hopkins Alumni and Friends,

Discover Istanbul, one of the world’s most exciting and exciting cities, on this seven-night adventure that promises to show you the Blue Mosque, Hagia Sophia and city’s other sights. Take a cruise along the Bosphorus and explore it in all its colorful markets. Travel experts have meticulously planned this trip to showcase the best of Istanbul. Expect to experience a spectrum of activities, including cultural visits, historical tours and hands-on sessions with the experts themselves.
