ISLAND LIFE®

Ancient Greece

AND

Turkey

Cruising aboard the Five-Star M.S. Le Soléal

September 24 to October 2, 2014
Dear Alumni & Friends:

Over 3,000 years ago, the Mycenaeans founded one of the earliest great civilizations of the world on the archipelago stretching from Greece to Turkey across Homer’s “wine dark” Aegean Sea. This exclusive and comprehensive itinerary cruises these waters into the very cradle of Western civilization and the classical world of Greece.

Join us for this spectacular cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, state-of-the-art, Five-Star M.S. LE SOLEAL, launched in 2013, a new generation of small ship design and technology featuring only 120 Staterooms. Dock in small ports of call inaccessible to larger ships and visit the legendary site of Troy and the most spectacularly preserved Greco-Roman city in the world, Ephesus.

Call on the islands of Delos, Mykonos, Santorini, Pátmos and medieval Rhodes; and sail Turkey’s sun-drenched coast. Learn more about 21st-century island life during the exclusive ISLAND LIFE FORUM® where you will meet local residents. Our itinerary features up to eight UNESCO World Heritage sites when you combine your cruise with the Athens Pre-Cruise and the Istanbul and Cappadocia Post-Cruise Options.

We are pleased that historian Eleni Zachariou will share her extensive knowledge of the islands, peoples, art and cultures of Greece and Turkey throughout the cruise, along with faculty experts.

ISLAND LIFE® IN ANCIENT GREECE AND TURKEY is a popular, comprehensive travel program and an excellent value—all accommodations, meals, exclusive CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS and an excursion each day are included, and you need to unpack only once! It is no surprise that this program sells out every year, so we encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are available.

Athens, Greece

Birthplace of democracy and home to many of history’s greatest philosophers and poets from Socrates to Herodotus, Athens is unmatched in its contributions to early Western civilization. Today, the city’s ancient greatness is encapsulated in the spectacular Acropolis, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and the gracefully proportioned Parthenon, a perfect example of Doric architecture dedicated to the goddess Athena in 438 B.C.

Delos

The mythical birthplace of Apollo and Artemis, Delos is today a UNESCO World Heritage site and considered to be one of the most sacred islands in the Greek world, as central to Greek spiritual life as Olympia and Delphi. The Sanctuary of Apollo is a spectacularly rich archaeological site with remains of three separate temples from the fifth and sixth centuries B.C. Delos’ awe-inspiring ruins also showcase an entire district of ancient houses (700 B.C.), the ancient Theatre (300 B.C.) and the second-century-B.C. House of the Dolphins.

See the magnificent Terrace of the Lions and its legendary statues carved from Naxian marble that have withstood the blight of wind and sea water for nearly 2,600 years.

Mykonos

According to ancient legend, the craggy hills and clefts of Mykonos were formed from the petrified bodies of giants defeated by Hercules. Mykonos’ iconic windmills, sugar-white, cube-shaped houses and azure bays epitomize the spectacular beauty of the Greek Isles. The Little Venice neighborhood resembles, in design, Italy’s famed canal city. Enjoy free time to stroll the whitewashed streets or stop in an ouzeri to nibble mezethes and sip ouzo, the quintessentially Greek aperitif.

Santorini (Akrotiri)

Sail to Santorini, one of the most spectacular of the Aegean Islands, and into its perfect harbor, a naturally created caldera, beneath which is believed to be the legendary Atlantis, possibly lost during a cataclysmic volcanic eruption in the 16th century B.C. A cable car descends to sea level from the elevated town of Fira, whose stunning white walled buildings stand in stark contrast against the dark volcanic cliffs. On the southern end of Santorini lie the recently excavated (1967) phenomenal ruins of Akrotiri. Held intact by layers of pumice and ash for over 3,500 years, Akrotiri’s streets reveal the artistry of its mysterious Minoan inhabitants.

OPTIONAL EXCURSION: By special arrangement, savor distinctive island dishes presented by a local chef and paired with native Santorini wines in Fira.

Rhodes
The island of Rhodes has been one of the most prosperous and strategic strongholds in the eastern Mediterranean since the Neolithic period. A UNESCO World Heritage site, Rhodes Town is an extraordinarily well-preserved medieval city, built over a great Hellenistic metropolis. A major Christian outpost during the Crusades, it is the site where the Knights of St. John erected the splendid 14th-century Palace of the Grand Masters.

OPTIONAL EXCURSION: Walk through the ancient village of Lindos to see the magnificent frescoes on its Byzantine church and the breathtaking views from its clifftop acropolis.

Pátmos
The small island of Pátmos and its Greek Orthodox Monastery of St. John, a UNESCO World Heritage site, loom large in the history of Christianity. Built in 1088, the monastery is still inhabited by monks who continue to preserve it as a pilgrimage site and place of religious study. St. John the Apostle of Ephesus was known to have been exiled to Pátmos for 18 months and very possibly wrote the Book of Revelation here in A.D. 95.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Meet residents of Pátmos and Aegina who will discuss contemporary daily life on these ancient Greek islands during the specially arranged ISLAND LIFE FORUM®.

Ephesus, Turkey (Kuşadası)
The Greco-Roman city of Ephesus is one of the world’s most dazzling architectural treasures. The beautifully restored façade of the Library of Celsus is breathtaking, and the Marble Way leads to an impressive 24,000-seat amphitheater where St. Paul addressed his Epistle to the Ephesians. According to legend, St. John the Apostle traveled with Mary, the mother of Jesus, to Ephesus. Here, he wrote his Gospel of John and later died and was buried. On the lower end of the slopes of Bulbul mountain, visit the Terrace Houses, where the wealthiest and most prominent families of first-century Ephesus once lived.

Troy (Çanakkale)
Located on a windswept plain near Çanakkale, Troy was immortalized by Homer’s 13th-century B.C. Trojan War epic, The Iliad, and inspired the tales of ancient Greek mythology at the core of Western literature. Designated a UNESCO World Heritage site, remnants of the Bronze Age citadel and nine cities built over a span of millennia stand on the very site where Troy fell.

Istanbul
This legendary metropolis straddling the Bosphorus Strait is the only city in the world that naturally bridges two continents: Europe and Asia. Its historic treasures are designated a UNESCO World Heritage site and include the magnificent Hagia Sophia, Topkapi Palace and the Blue Mosque.
