Kraków
Monday and Tuesday,
September 15 and 16
For more than one thousand years, Kraków has been considered the academic, artistic and spiritual capital of Poland, serving as the country’s seat of government from 1038 to 1596. Kraków is the only major Polish city to have come through World War II relatively undamaged, and its Old Town is a UNESCO World Heritage site whose treasures have been well-preserved through the centuries.
Enjoy a walking tour of the grounds of Wawel Hill. See the Royal Castle, the seat of the monarchy for 500 years, which blends 16th-century Florentine architecture with Polish motifs and houses the state art collection, and the 14th-century where all of Poland’s kings were crowned and buried. Stroll through the Old Town and experience the lively Rynek Główny (Main Market Square). Visit the 14th-century twin-spired Mariacki (St. Mary’s) Church, one of the finest Gothic structures in Poland, to see the famous medieval altar by Wit Stwosz. From the church’s tower, a lone trumpeter sounds a haunting call every hour on the hour, in commemoration of a warning of an impending attack by the Tatars in medieval times. Pass by the former residence of Pope John Paul II, where he lived while Archbishop of Kraków.

Tour the historic Kazimierz district, to see the impressive landmarks of this former medieval town, known for its vibrant Jewish community from the 14th century until World War II.
On Monday evening, attend a presentation on Frédéric Chopin, then enjoy the Master’s works during a specially arranged, private performance in Florianka Hall.
During your stay in Kraków, you can choose to join optional excursions to Auschwitz-Birkenau, a UNESCO World Heritage site; the Wieliczka Salt Mine, a UNESCO World Heritage site and marvel at “The Underground Salt Cathedral of Poland,” carved entirely from rock salt; and/or the Oskar Schindler Factory, now a museum chronicling the history of Kraków under Nazi occupation.

Visit Melk’s magnificent Benedictine Abbey, a showcase of impressive Austrian Baroque architecture, priceless relics and stunning 18th-century ceiling frescoes by Paul Troger. It was a prestigious center of scholarship throughout the Middle Ages and its library today is a repository of 100,000 medieval manuscripts.

After lunch, visit the charming medieval village of Dürnstein, situated below the hilltop ruins of Castle Kuenringer, where Richard the Lionheart was held prisoner after the Third Crusade. Walk through the tiny, picturesque village to visit the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Abbey Church.

Then, cruise the Danube’s spectacular and fabled Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site, where terraced vineyards blanket hillsides dotted with the haunting ruins of medieval castles.

The charming hamlet of Dürnstein is nestled within the rolling Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site that contains traces of past civilizations, including medieval villages, castles and monasteries.
Vienna
Monday, September 22
The former seat of the Habsburg Empire, Vienna’s historic city center is an open-air museum of splendid Baroque architecture, designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. Tour this remarkable city, which owes its present appearance to the Austro-Hungarian Emperor Franz Josef, who created the famous Ringstrasse showcasing the city’s finest landmarks—the impressive Vienna State Opera House and the lavish Hofburg Palace. Visit the Gothic Stephansdom (St. Stephan’s Cathedral) and enjoy a private, specially arranged performance of Mozart’s music in a premier venue. The afternoon is at leisure to further explore the cultural treasures of Vienna at your own pace.

Vienna/Bratislava, Slovakia
Tuesday, September 23
This morning, join the optional excursion to visit Schönbrunn Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site and the summer residence of the Habsburgs, or enjoy time at leisure.

Cruise from Vienna to Bratislava, through the Donau-Auen National Park, which preserves the last remaining major wetlands environment in central Europe. This afternoon, dock in Bratislava, capital of Slovakia, located in the foothills of the Carpathian Mountains overlooking the banks of the Danube River. Beautifully restored since the end of the Cold War, the city showcases 21st-century life amid its 1000-year-old history. Enjoy a morning walking tour of Bratislava’s Old Town; its medieval, Renaissance and 19th-century architecture is among the finest in central Europe. See the Romanesque 14th-century Cathedral of St. Martin and visit the elaborate Primatial Palace. The 14th-century St. Michael’s Gate is the only remaining portion of the city’s medieval fortifications.

Budapest, Hungary
Wednesday, September 24
In Budapest, the “Pearl of the Danube,” Austrian-born Habsburg Archduke Joseph, the “most Hungarian Habsburg,” is credited with creating this city that rivaled Vienna as an imperial capital. The twin cities of Buda and Pest have faced each other across the Danube River for centuries, and today the Danube embankments and the Buda Castle Quarter are designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. This morning, begin your tour in Pest, where the elegant neo-Gothic limestone Parliament Building, built between 1884 and 1904, towers over the river. Pass through Heroes’ Square and admire the monuments honoring the Magyar chiefs who conquered Hungary in A.D. 896. Visit the 19th-century, neo-Renaissance Hungarian State Opera House, one of the most beautiful in the world with the interiors decorated with frescoes by eminent painters, including Mór Than and Károly Lotz. By special arrangement, an opera singer will perform an aria for our group.

After lunch, cross the imposing Chain Bridge linking river-level Pest to the hillier Buda side of the Danube. On Castle Hill, visit the stately, late-19th-century neo-Romanesque Fisherman’s Bastion whose seven turrets symbolize the seven Magyar tribes that settled in the Carpathian Basin, and enjoy panoramic views of the city. Also, visit the Gothic Matthias Church, built in the 1200s and renovated in the 17th and 19th centuries.

Attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception this evening followed by a specially arranged local folklore performance on board.
