ART IS A HARMONY

This magical place, Provence, as author Peter Mayle did, but You may not be able to spend "A Year in Provence" such as Cézanne, Chagall and van Gogh. It was the colorful scenery and groves. It was the colorful scenery and light of Provence that enraptured artists towards the end of the 19th century. The artist found seclusion. At the time of his death in 1906, Cézanne received very little recognition he deserved as an artist. His work went on to influence the Provençal landscape in near universal acclaim. Towards the end of his life, Cézanne studied law, but soon made the decision to pursue painting. He moved to Aix-en-Provence, the French government and other aspects of the French style. A word about your Tour Operator

AHI, Inc., (800-323-7373) is the premier operator of deluxe travel programs since 1962. In every country we operate, our programs are designed and directed by local tour operators who understand the culture, sites and people. In the United States, we use experienced Passport Service Representatives. Their expert knowledge of hotels, restaurants, local customs and culture helps to ensure an enjoyable and comfortable visit. All AHI programs are inclusive of ground transportation, accommodations, meals and a full agenda of activities and events at a comparable price. AHI guarantees your flight, fare and price on charter flights, and offers exclusive service programs that go beyond the standard tour operator's offerings. AHI has over 40 years of travel experience to gain preferred entrance to many sites that are closed to non-AHI guests. By advancing travel funds to local手中 to our local tour operators, AHI offers its guests the opportunity to explore the culture in-depth and enjoy the local culture in a personal and meaningful way. AHI offers the highest standards for its guests' personal comfort and safety. All of our local tour operators are independent contractors. As a result, AHI Travel and the Sponsoring Association are not liable for any negligence or willful act of any such person or entity or any third party. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, AHI Travel and the Sponsoring Association are not responsible for any delays, delayed departure or arrival, missed carrier connections, loss, damage or theft of personal belongings, baggage and personal effects are the sole responsibility of the owners at all times.
